Senate Scrap Waxes Over McCarthy Case

Lucas Sent To His Seat; Testimonies
Are Closed Today

WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—An uproarious Senate scrap over Republican Senator McCarthy's Communism-in-the-government charges brought a forecast of more fireworks from both sides today.

"We've just started to fight," said Democratic Leader Lucas (Ill.). He touched off the latest bitter row and was ordered to his Senate seat on a charge that he called McCarthy a liar in violation of the chamber's rules.

On the other side, McCarthy made it plain he is ready to fire back any time the Democrats decide to let fly at him again. He got a big helping hand in the skirmish with Lucas yesterday from Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the Republican floor leader.

While the angry debate still echoed, the Senate foreign relations subcommittee investigating McCarthy's charges arranged to take testimony behind closed doors today from Frank Bielaski, once an agent for the old Office of Strategic Services.

Bielaski was called to tell the committee what he knows about the Amerasia magazine case of 1945, which involved alleged illegal use of secret government documents.

McCarthy has contended that Owen Lattimore, Far Eastern affairs expert, was mixed up in that case. Lattimore has testified under oath that he had nothing to do with it.

Lattimore concluded two days of testimony and questioning by the inquiry committee late yesterday. He was told to stand by for possible further quizzing later.

On the witness stand, Lattimore again flatly denied McCarthy's charges that he is Russia's head spy in this country. He also termed "hogwash" the allegations of ex-Communist Louis Budenz that he (Lattimore) was a Communist.

It was the Lattimore case that sparked yesterday's hot argument in the Senate, after the inquiry committee had closed up shop for the day.

Referring to the scrap, Lucas told reporters today:

"We on this (Democratic) side of the aisle are tired of being kicked around and of listening to that claptrap on the other side."

Lucas lit the fuse yesterday when he read a statement in which John E. Peurifoy, deputy Undersecretary of State, said there was "not a shred of truth" in McCarthy's charge that Lattimore has a desk in the State Department.

Senator Wherry jumped up and shouted:

"He is calling Senator McCarthy a liar. He is out of order and should take his seat."

Vice President Barkley, who was presiding, ordered Lucas to sit down. After protesting vehemently Lucas did. He was put in his seat under terms of a Senate rule which provides:

"No Senator in debate shall, directly or indirectly, by any form of words impute to another Senator or to other Senators any conduct or motive unworthy or unbecoming a Senator."

Chief Allen Wants Mahoning Crackdown

YOUNGSTOWN, May 4—Youngstown Police Chief Edward J. Allen Jr., is waiting today for the power to crack down on three racing wires in suburban Wickliffe.

Allen challenged Sheriff Paul J. Langley yesterday to "clean up Mahoning county or deputize our men and we will show him how it is done."

His statement followed disclosure by a Western Union official in Washington that the "bookie drops" were being operated in the suburb. They were originally listed as Youngstown wires.

However, Sheriff Langley has not said whether Allen would be deputized and permitted to crack down on the joints outside the city limits, or whether he intends to organize a raiding party himself.

Gen. MacArthur Rebukes Reds

Says Protest Over
U. S. Bases 'Insolent'

TOKYO, May 4—(AP)—General MacArthur today rebuked as "provocative impertinence" a Russian claim that maintenance of American military bases in Japan violates Allied occupation policies.

In a sharp 250 words the supreme commander dismissed yesterday's demand by Lt. Gen. Kuzma Derevyanko for an explanation of the "reconstruction of the former Japanese naval and air bases" in Japan and Okinawa.

MacArthur told the top Russian representative in Japan that Okinawa does not come under international control. He continued:

"The United States government is entirely free to take such military measures therein as it may deem advisable. Your inquiry concerning this matter is therefore a presumption without the slightest excuse of validity."

MacArthur told Derevyanko "your professed anxiety with reference to Japan proper, which is subject to limited international supervision, is quite groundless."

The allied commander went on to say the demilitarization ordered by the Far Eastern commission has been accomplished, and he added:

"As for bases and installations for the forces of occupation, both American and British, they are—and will continue to be so long as occupation lasts—maintained in a condition of such adequacy and preparedness as will insure the fullest security, operational efficiency, and most complete readiness for any eventuality."

He bluntly informed the Russian that military details about Japanese bases "are matters which concern only their commanders."

MacArthur said the future of these bases can be determined only by a Japanese peace treaty.

The occupation chief concluded: "All of these facts are so well known to you, who have been here from the beginning of the occupation, that I cannot accept the integrity of intent of your letter. It can only be regarded as a vehicle of propaganda or a provocative impertinence."

26 Applicants Seeking Leetonia Coaching Job

The Leetonia board of education, meeting Wednesday evening, discussed the hiring of a new coaching staff for Leetonia High School, but took no action, it was learned today.

President Charles Steltz said today, "We've not hired anyone, but we're making satisfactory progress on the problem."

He added that 26 men have applied for the jobs, which will entail coaching football, basketball and track.

"We have nothing definite to report," Steltz said, "but I believe it will be settled within the next week."

The board earlier this spring announced that Harold Morrow, varsity coach, and Andy Mruzik, his assistant, would not be rehired.

Truman Keeps Optimism On Cold War

Feels Shooting War
Not Close; Disagrees
On Hoover's Idea

WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—President Truman said today he doesn't feel the cold war is close to turning into a shooting war with Russia. In fact, he said, he thinks the international situation is much better now than it was in 1946.

Mr. Truman voiced his optimism for world peace at a new conference. He spoke out after a reporter told him Senator Tydings (D-Md.) had said this country is close to a shooting war with Russia.

The president said he thinks Tydings was unduly alarmed if he said that. He said he thinks the situation is improving. He said he may be an optimist in saying that, and added that one has to be an optimist to be president of the United States.

Mr. Truman said that he disagrees with former president Hoover on Hoover's proposal to reorganize the United Nations without Russia. But, he said, he feels Hoover is right in suggesting that moral forces be strengthened for world peace.

The president said the nation's defense budget will be smaller for the 1951-52 fiscal year (beginning July 1, 1951) and he is not alarmed in any sense of the word. This was in answer to a question whether recent proposed increases in the 1950-51 defense budget were based on alarming world conditions.

He suggested that reporters read Secretary of Defense Johnson's reasons for the increases. Mr. Truman said they simply are to maintain a defense program adequate for the country.

6 Persons Hurt In 2-Car Crash

Driver Arrested After Accident On Route 62

Six people were injured in a two-car accident at 4 p. m. Wednesday on Route 62, six miles north of Salem at the junction of the North Benton-Calla State Line Road. Four of the victims were admitted to Salem hospitals.

State patrolmen said the accident occurred when Steve Demes, 30, of R. D. 3, Canfield, pulled off the side road into the path of the car driven by Burton Zimmerman, 24, of R. D. 1, Fresno, O.

Joy Demes, aged two, was admitted to the Central Clinic for observation and treatment of head lacerations. Mrs. Steve Demes, 22, is at City Hospital with a possible fractured back and pelvis and multiple body abrasions.

Mrs. Wayne Zimmerman, 28, was admitted at City Hospital for multiple contusions of the face and legs and lacerations of the thigh. Mrs. Mildred Zimmerman, 58, suffered severe contusions of the face and a fractured nose. She, too, is in City Hospital.

Other passengers in the Demes car, besides Joy and Mrs. Demes, were Steven Demes, aged two, who was uninjured, and Sonia Frazier, 15, who was treated for a sprained shoulder and released. Steve Demes received a sprained back and abrasions of the arm and shoulder. He was released after treatment.

Wayne Zimmerman, 29, passenger in the Zimmerman car with his wife and Mrs. Mildred Zimmerman, received lacerations of the left hand. He did not require hospital treatment, nor did Kathy Zimmerman aged two, another passenger.

Demes was arrested by patrolmen for failure to yield the right of way and will appear before Mayor Lloyd Culler of Washington Saturday to answer charges. Both cars were heavily damaged.

2 Witnesses May Unlock Gambling Probe

Henchmen Of Slain
Gargotta To Talk
To Inquirers Today

WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—Senate gambling investigators today sought from two witnesses—described as henchmen of a slain Kansas City gangster—the key to a mystery wire network carrying race news to bookmakers.

A Senate commerce subcommittee called in Tano Lococo and Eddie "Spitz" Osadchey, identified by a federal grand jury as partners of the late mobster Charles Gargotta, for an explanation of wire operations which have been a missing link in the group's investigation of big-time gambling.

After the commerce subcommittee winds up its hearings, a special five-man senate committee will open an overall investigation into organized gambling and crime syndicate operations.

The Senate approved the special inquiry late yesterday on a showdown vote of 36 to 35—with Republicans losing their fight to place the investigation in the hands of the Senate judiciary committee. Vice President Barkley cast the deciding vote in favor of the special committee. Final approval was a mere formality by a 69 to 1 vote.

Barkley was expected to name the investigators—three Democrats and two Republicans—either today or tomorrow. Senator Kefauver (D-Tenn.) is slated to direct the crime hunt.

Kefauver said he hopes to get a staff organized quickly to start under-cover fact-finding before any open hearings are held.

This investigation will be entirely separate from the commerce subcommittee's present study of proposed legislation to ban the movement of gambling information across state lines.

Senator McFarland (D-Ariz.), chairman of the subcommittee, said he had subpoenaed Lococo and Osadchey to get the "full story" of the operations of the Standard News Service in Kansas City.

8 Suspended For Youngstown Hazing

YOUNGSTOWN, May 4—(AP)—Eight upperclassmen were under suspension from Youngstown College classes today because of an initiation hazing in which fraternity pledges were marooned overnight on a Lake Erie beach.

Dr. Howard W. Jones, College president, also announced that the charter of Phi Gamma, the fraternity involved, had been suspended indefinitely.

Dr. Jones declined to disclose the names of the eight students who drew indefinite suspension yesterday by the executive committee of the College. The committee also voted to tighten enforcement of hazing rules and set up new regulations for initiations.

Eight pledges of Phi Gamma were stranded 100 yards out in Lake Erie near Ashtabula from 2 a. m. Tuesday until several hours after daybreak when the Coast Guard rescued them. Coast Guardsmen said if the lake had got rough during the night the boys might have drowned.

Merton Bartelmy, president of Phi Gamma said: "We are deeply sorry about the way this thing turned out. We had no thought of any harm coming to the boys."

Draft Extension Bill Weighed

Amendments May Cut
President's Power

WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—Mounting world unrest was expected to boost a two-year draft extension over its first congressional hurdle today in the House armed services committee.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) called for a vote on the issue with a prediction the extension would be approved. The committee spent two hours yesterday hearing top foreign policy and defense officials urge its adoption.

The legislation before the House group would:

1. Amend the present law—which expires June 24—to prevent any inductions until Congress has given the signal by declaring a national emergency.

2. Curb the President's power to take over war-essential industries until Congress declares the emergency.

If the law is extended, every male between the ages of 18 and 26 who lives in the United States would have to register—unless he has already done so—and take a physical examination to determine his fitness for military duty.

The present law was passed in 1948, but hasn't been used since early 1949. Military leaders want it extended, however, so the draft machinery will be ready to operate if needed.

This view was elaborated yesterday by Secretary of Defense Johnson, Secretary of the Army, State Department Counselor George Kennan, and the Joint Chiefs of Staff. They testified behind closed doors.

Afterward Vinson said they supported a statement made earlier at a public session by Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs.

Bradley urged retention of the draft and said that as far as he could see "there has been no letup in the aggressive extension of Communism toward its goal of world domination."

Taft Sees Cut For ECA

GOP Leader Feels
Half Billion Sure

WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—Encouraged by a new economy recruit, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said today "there is a possibility" the Senate will whack half a billion dollars from the pending European aid bill.

Senator Ives (R-NY) told the Senate late yesterday that "for the first time" he will vote to cut a Marshall plan authorization.

The New York Republican backed this up by offering an amendment to whittle $500,000,000 from the $3,100,000,000 asked to finance the third year of the European Recovery Program.

Previously Senators Taft and Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) had backed a 20 per cent cut of $600,000,000 while Senator Kem (R-Mo) proposed a full $1,000,000,000 slash.

The Senate has agreed to start voting on these various cutbacks and a long list of other amendments Friday.

Senator Connally (D-Tex), floor manager for the big global aid authorization, told a reporter he was confident the Senate would reject all attempts to cut back the total, as it has in past years.

But Taft said he hopes economy advocates can join forces "on a cut of 500 or 600 million dollars, I don't care which."

"I have not made any check yet and there will be some Democratic support," Taft said. "I think there is a possibility of a fair reduction."

Pepper Defeat Is Analyzed

Taft Forces See
Labor Slipping

By The Associated Press
You could take your choice today of what caused Rep. George Smathers' one-sided defeat of New Deal Senator Claude Pepper in Florida's Democratic primary Tuesday.

Smathers himself called it "a victory of liberalism as opposed to radicalism"—proof, he said, that the people of Florida "do not wish to venture off down the side roads of extremism or socialism." Senator Taft (R-Ohio) saw as the significant thing "that the labor people went down there to defeat Smathers because he was for the Taft-Hartley law." Taft added that "the people were for it and I believe that indicates the attitude in other states."

Jack Kroll, director of the CIO Political Action Committee, viewed the Tuesday results as the triumph of "a sinister conspiracy" to impose "upon our country a cruel and reactionary program." He added: "The tactics we have just seen in Florida will soon be used in every state" and "this challenge will be met."

With only 10 precincts missing out of the state's 1,595, the unofficial tally was 382,949 for Smathers and 319,178 for Pepper.

William M. Boyle, Democratic national chairman, didn't go into the reasons for Smathers' victory but congratulated him in a telegram. The message spoke of continuing "the fine service to your state and the nation you have rendered in Washington."

Boyle also messaged Pepper that the party is still depending on him for support in its "battle against reactionary Republicanism." For his part, Pepper issued a statement of appreciation to his "noble gallant army" of supporters.

Boyle sent congratulations also to Joseph T. Ferguson, nominated Tuesday by Ohio Democrats to oppose Taft this fall. The national chairman pledged the committee's full resources to help "defeat an opponent who has become a symbol of Old Guard reactionary Republicanism."

Still another telegram of congratulations went to Senator Lister Hill, nominated by Alabama Democrats for a third term in the Senate.

It will be May 30 before there can be a final result on the effort of Hill and other regular Democrats in Alabama to take control of the state party machinery from the States Righters.

Work Resumes In Some Plants On Monday

Pensions, Insurance
Are Major Items
In UAW's Victory

DETROIT, May 4—(AP)—The 99-day Chrysler strike, second longest and costliest in the history of the automotive industry, is settled today.

The new contract, which would run for three years, must have the formal approval of local unions before the UAW will send the strikers back. That was believed to be a formality, however.

Voting by the local unions is scheduled for Saturday.

Although the first of the striking workers will be back on their jobs by Monday it is doubted that full production in the various Chrysler, DeSoto, Dodge and Plymouth assembly plants will be resumed before the middle of next week.

UAW President Walter Reuther viewed the settlement as a "victory over the blind selfishness of the Chrysler Corp."

He added: "The Chrysler strike was more than a fight for pension, hospital-medical and insurance benefits and an improved contract. The Chrysler strike was a part of a great human crusade to build a better tomorrow and a better world—a world in which we and our children can have a little more of the good things in life, a little more security and a little more happiness."

Herman L. Weckler, Chrysler vice president and general manager, issued a statement stating: "The new contract is a good contract. It provides pension and insurance benefits that should be helpful to our employees in the emergencies of life that people are not always financially prepared to meet. And with the cooperation of our employees and the union, the contract should also make for smoother operations in our plants."

"As regards pension and other benefits that the individual employee gets under the new contract, he could have got substantially these at the conference table without losing a single day's pay."

In addition to pensions and hospital-medical and insurance benefits, the union claimed these gains:

A three-cent an hour wage boost for Chrysler workers in plants at Kokomo, New Castle and Evansville, Ind.

Wage increases of three to 13 cents an hour for workers in several Chrysler parts plants.

Higher vacation pay for Chrysler workers with from three to five years service. (It is customary in the auto industry to take pay in lieu of vacations.) The increase is $31.10 a year.

A check-off of union dues. (It had asked a union shop agreement.)

Strengthened grievance procedure.

Improved seniority provisions.

Columbiana

Final consideration of plans for the new lighting system in the old part of the High School building is set for a meeting of the Grade Mothers Club in the high school building at 8 p. m. Wednesday, May 17, the May meeting having been postponed one week.

Officers will be elected for the ensuing 12 months.

Special invitations to be present are extended to mothers of children who will be entering kindergarten next fall and to mothers newly resident here whose children have been enrolled in school.

Supt. H. F. Richmond will explain the school budget for the year, and Principal D. W. Bailey and Clarence Haines, teacher of public speaking and English, will talk to mothers of prospective junior high pupils about the transition from sixth grade to junior high.

Mrs. D. W. Bailey, kindergarten teacher, will meet with mothers of prospective kindergarten children next fall and explain what is expected of these children and what may be accomplished.

Columbiana and Leetonia police are planning a benefit dance for Oakdale Gardens, east of town on Route 14 for Friday evening, June 9. The proceeds will go to a fund for uniforms and other incidentals. The Columbiana fire department will have a carnival campaign here in July.

Supt. H. F. Richmond of the Columbiana schools, program chairman for the meeting of the Kiwanis Club Monday evening, presented a moving picture, "Our Grass Is Greener," put out by the Industrial Information Institute of Youngstown. The film showed the industrial importance of four counties in the Youngstown area, Columbiana, Mahoning and Trumbull, and Mercer in Pennsylvania.

A demonstration of the slide projector presented by the Kiwanis Club to the Columbiana schools also was given. Students of the schools were to have presented musical entertainment, but that feature of the program had to be given up.

About 100 were in attendance at the ladies night box social of the Rotary Club in the high school auditorium Monday evening, June 9. The proceeds will go to a fund for uniforms and other incidentals. The Columbiana fire department will have a carnival campaign here in July.

Proceeds of the evening will go to the club's crippled children's fund. The event was planned by A. L. Wells, Rotary Club social chairman. Kenneth Ferrall will be program chairman next Monday evening.

Jack Appleton, Hi-Y adviser for the Mahoning valley, was the speaker at a dinner meeting of Hi-Y sponsors of Columbiana County Council at Heck's restaurant here Monday evening. Problems of discussion were summer camps, the coming season for Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y groups and looking forward to civic day in 1951, which will probably be in March, although no definite date has been set.

Twenty-three students of Fairfield Centralized High School will be guests of a newspaper, as a result of a subscription contest, on a trip to Niagara Falls May 19-21. They will be accompanied by five chaperones from the school and three nurses provided by the host. The train will leave Youngstown at midnight Friday, May 19, and return Sunday morning, May 21.

The annual mother-daughter banquet of the Daughters of the King, with members of the Mary Martha Class as guests, will be held at Jerusalem Lutheran Church at 6:30 p. m. Thursday, the date having been changed from Tuesday. Mrs. Raymond Kulow of Hubbard will be the speaker.

Town's Square May Be Paved

Columbiana Council Asked For Permission

COLUMBIANA, May 4—Merle Berryman, representing Manos Theaters, owned by George Manos of Toronto, who is building the new theater at the northwest corner of the public square at a cost of $300,000, was before City Council Tuesday evening with a request for permission to pave the triangular grass plot at that corner of the square to afford a roomy approach to the theater entrance.

Council took the request under advisement.
When the public square was paved soon after the turn of the century, the four corners were cut off and made triangular grass plots to reduce the paving area. Manos agrees to pay the cost of blacktopping, or whatever material is used, and to install an illuminated fountain.

An ordinance was passed directing purchase of a new portable air compressor for the water department and authorizing advertisement for bids.

Announcement was received from the state fire marshal's department that the large frame shop building on the Esterly lot on W. Friend st. at the corner of the first alley west of Main st. be razed as a fire hazard. A similar order has been made with respect to the large frame building in the rear of the Home Savings & Loan building on Main st.

The street committee will make an inspection of sidewalks in all parts of town and recommend repairs where needed. Property owners will be notified and if repairs are not made, the street department will do the work and the property will be assessed for the improvement.

Purchase of a tractor was deferred. Representatives of several companies were present. Thursday, May 18, was set as annual spring clean-up day.

Leetonia

Thirty-four new members will be honored guests at the Congregational Fellowship Evening at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 8 p. m. Friday. The program will be in charge of the I. F. Melling Bible Class, of which Roy Crook is president, and the buffet luncheon will be served by the Willing Workers Class, of which Mrs. Roy Mathey is president.

Thirty friends and relatives were entertained at the home of Mrs. Mary Butch Tuesday evening in honor of her 75th birthday by her daughters, Mrs. John White and Miss Lena Butch, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Dominic Butch. Mrs. Butch received beautiful remembrances from her guests. Bingo was played and the hostesses served refreshments.

Leetonia Sportsmen's Association will hold its monthly meeting at the Cherry Valley Lodge at 7:30 tonight.

D. Wallace Rebekah Lodge No. 279 will hold a benefit "500" party at the I.O.O.F. Hall this evening.

Mrs. J. H. McDonald entertained bridge club associates at her home Wednesday evening.

L. E. McKenna and Paul Casey have been named delegates to the 51st annual convention of the Ohio State Council Knights of Columbus at the Mayflower Hotel in Akron May 13-15. Paul Murphy and John Milcetic are the alternates.

Lisbon

The Lisbon Council of Church Women will hold its yearly May Fellowship meeting at 2 p. m. Friday at St. Jacob's Reformed church, north of Lisbon. Officers will be installed.

Those attending the meeting will hear Mrs. Raymond Kulow of Hubbard, lecturer and Sunday school teacher for the past 25 years. Her subject will be "Gardens of the Bible" including the Garden of Eden, Sampson's Vineyard, Solomon's Garden and Ahab's Herb Garden. Mrs. Kulow is woman's editor of the Lutheran Standard, a church publication.

The musical part of the program will be provided by the A. M. E. Choir, a tea and social period will complete the afternoon program at which the ladies of St. Jacob's church will be hostesses.

Senior Day will be observed in David Anderson High school Friday, when an assembly program will be sponsored by the Senior Class, and the conducting of classes and school activities will be taken over by members of the graduating class.

The program will include presentation of medals to winners of the American Legion, essay contest, and the Booster Club's Dr. Seward Harris award to the most outstanding Seniors.

178 Pupils Attend Vocational Meeting

COLUMBIANA, May 4—A total of 178 students from Columbiana, Fairfield Centralized, Leetonia and New Waterford high schools Wednesday afternoon attended the third annual vocational guidance conference, sponsored by the Columbiana Rotary Club, in the Methodist Church.

Columbiana High School enrolled 80 seniors and juniors, Fairfield Centralized 36 seniors and juniors, Leetonia High 35 seniors and New Waterford High 27 seniors.

Vocations attracting the most students were secretary, 32; home making, 32; clerical bookkeeping and nurse, each 27; telephone operator, 23; interior decorating and auto mechanics, 21 each; mechanical engineering, 19; agriculture, 18; beautician, 14; teaching, 12, and journalism and social service, 10 each.

Principal D. W. Bailey of Columbiana High School presided for organization at 1 o'clock. Superintendent T. V. Utterback of Fairfield School explained the local opportunities.

students have vocational problems at any time, they will receive attention if they address the Rotary Club, which will see that they have counsel.

John Heintzelman, chairman of the Rotary youth committee, had charge of arrangements.

The conference concluded with a lecture by Dr. Dwight Arnold, vocational guidance director at Kent State University. He spoke of the changing occupational scene, in which old callings are passing and new ones developing.

Dr. Arnold said the field for clerical workers is growing, including stenographic occupations for young men, and emphasized the importance having a calling that affords contentment. He counseled against overlooking local opportunities.

The Man Nobody Wanted

NO SOONER had the primary votes been counted than all the reluctant politicians who must go down the line willy-nilly for Joseph T. Ferguson in his campaign for the U.S. Senate against Robert A. Taft swallowed their pride. They have work to do.

This year's senatorial contest in Ohio will be the rehearsal for the 1952 Presidential election. There is going to be a definite test in a pivotal state of the power of the Democratic party and labor union chiefs.

They wanted the strongest candidate they could find to run against Senator Taft, because if they lose this one they will have lost face in national politics. But they discovered to their consternation that none of the really strong candidates wanted them. The only politician who wanted to make the race and knew how to do it was Mr. Ferguson.

He filed for the primary and began to run, with no encouragement. The experts didn't make the mistake they made when nobody wanted Harry Truman in 1948. They predicted that Ferguson would win, and he did. The man nobody wanted is the man the Fair Dealers in Ohio and all the Dealers outside the state who intend to sit in on the game must back in the big test.

They don't dare lose. They will do everything in their power to defeat Senator Taft, which is their only objective. They aren't interested in Mr. Ferguson as an individual, only as a problem in political management. If they could get him elected, what kind of a Senator he would be is something else. They probably have concluded he would know which side his bread was buttered on in that event.

There will be no time, effort, or money spared to whoop up the Ferguson candidacy. That needs to be understood early in the game and taken into full consideration by Ohioans who believe Senator Taft should continue to represent their state in the Senate. This is no time to yawn, chuckle about the prospect of "Little Joe" Ferguson in the Senate and feel complacent. The man nobody wanted is running again in Ohio in 1950 if enough citizens can be lulled to sleep by the prospect of a shoo-in for Taft next November.

Some Honesty Would Help

SECRETARY of Commerce Sawyer has told the United States Chamber of Commerce that it should take the initiative in teaching Americans that their prosperity depends on a "profitable and a constantly growing business community." He says his department will be glad to help business win more friends among its employees and the public. That is a generous offer.

Unfortunately, the Department of Commerce is only part of the government. It does not control the attitudes and actions of the Department of Justice, for example, which will charge that a business is a monopoly at the drop of an affidavit. Nor does it have anything to say about the attitudes and actions of the White House, which is preoccupied with the idea that politicians could run business better than the people who are running it now.

It obviously has no influence on the high command of the Democratic party which intends to make every vote that can be made by appeals to prejudice against business enterprise—though remaining willing to take campaign contributions from the individuals who own and operate business organizations. Secretary Sawyer must grit his teeth sometimes about his situation in the Truman administration.

There is not a member of that administration or a hanger-on who does not depend on business enterprise, especially the profits which pay the bulk of the exorbitantly high cost of big government. If they were honest enough to admit it,

Faith In Future

VALSETZ, ORE. THIS IS ONE of the most isolated towns in America and a guy has to be six feet tall to live here or risk drowning.

Leaving out the moist month of April, it rained 72 inches in the first 90 days of 1950. This is six feet of wet water.

"Of course, we measure rainfall here by the foot rather than the inch," said Bert Thomas, a pudgy sub-six-footer who has survived 30 adult and soaking years in this heartland of the big timber country.

Bert is a lumberman. He is general manager of the Valselt Lumber Co., which owns some 30,000 acres of the 26 million acre belt of Pacific forest land which is the world's richest woodland.

This belt, still half virgin, half second growth, produces one third of the home grown lumber marketed in the United States.

Running a tough lumber camp of twelve hundred people brings a lot of problems. But the one that Bert likes to talk about, tongue in cheek, is how he solved there would be no need for business to spend money and time undoing the malicious mischief of business baiters.

So You Think You're In A Rut

CAPT. W. D. BROWN, the commanding officer of the Battleship Missouri when it ran aground early this year, has been given the bad news. For having bad luck in command of a ship he knew nothing about and for getting no help from others who didn't know their jobs either, Capt. Brown has been knocked down 249 places on the U.S. Navy's promotion list. Commr. John R. Millett, the ship's operations officer, has been set back 350 places.

Remember this the next time you think you're in a rut. That's no rut, son, that's only a little old shallow place in the green pastures. For a real rut, take a look at things from where Capt. Brown sits. And if you want to see a rut that looks like the Grand Canyon, think of Lt. Comdr. Morris, with 350 people ahead of him waiting for promotion.

Riddle Cleared Up

FREDERICK JOLIOT-CURIE, one of the top atomic scientists in the world, has been discharged as French High Commissioner for Atomic Energy because he openly supports the policies of his country's Communist Party.

Thus ends what has long been a great puzzle to people in other lands concerned about keeping atomic secrets from the Reds. For Joliot-Curie's Communist sympathies have been well known for a long time, and it didn't make sense to have him in the key post of France's atomic energy commission.

Apparently the French were willing to take the risk in return for capitalizing on his scientific talents. What finally stopped them was a statement Joliot-Curie made before a Communist Party conference recently: "A true progressive scientist will never give a scrap of his scientific knowledge for the purpose of war against the Soviet Union."

That ought to be clear enough, for even the French.

By Hal Boyle

THE problem of the children beginning to outnumber the trees.

"THE COMPANY built 185 homes here for married loggers," he said.

"One row of houses bordered a swamp. That swamp caused us all kinds of trouble. It was so close to the baseball diamond that everytime a guy made a long hit the ball would get lost in the swamp."

"Not only that, but every spring the loggers who lived in that row of houses would come to us and ask us for lumber to build an addition to their homes. Well, I didn't mind giving them the wood, but I couldn't figure out why the fellows living in this particular row of houses needed so much."

"When I asked them, they said, 'We just had another child, we gotta have more room; need a bigger house.'"

So Thomas checked the situation and found this:

"The swamp they lived by was full of frogs, and the frogs kept everybody awake half the night."

"So we drained it and got rid of the frogs. And you know what?"

Since then the request for lumber dropped in half. They don't need to build so many additions to their homes.

"But, of course, the main thing is we don't lose any more baseballs in the swamp."

While Bert likes to joke about the birth control problems of the loggers, he can't very well joke about the lack of birth control in the rich Douglas fir forests his company is destroying to build homes across America.

THERE IS A great "tree farm" program in progress in the Pacific northwest that will in time make the forests self-renewing.

"We believe in it completely, and we see that our cutover land is seeded with new trees," said Bert. "But, frankly, we got wise about 15 to 20 years too late."

By that he meant that in his company's 30,000 acres there will be a time lag period of 25 to 50 years when the old crop of trees is gone and the young crop is still too small to market. It takes a Douglas fir 80 to 100 years to ripen for harvest.

But the lumbermen out here are making a long term investment. They are seeding acreage now that can't pay off within the next half century.

"We still think America will be here and needing lumber," said Bert. And he and others are planting the bare stripped mountainsides with faith and dollars against a future payoff from the land they believe in.

Interpreting The Florida Election

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON THE CIO is unintentionally responsible for the worst defeat the Truman administration has ever suffered in a senatorial election. The defeat of Senator Claude Pepper by Rep. Smathers was a clear case of labor-union interference in the affairs of the state of Florida and an unwise stirring up of friction between whites and Negroes.

For, whatever else the outcome of the Florida contest may be interpreted to mean, there is no doubt among Florida editors that the FEPC was the fundamental issue—the right of employers to hire whom they please without a law that might be abused, as was the Wagner Act, so as to mean enforced hiring of certain citizens solely because of fears of a statute instead of considerations of efficiency.

The CIO sent scores of organizers into Florida, which they had every right to do. They increased the Negro registration from about 26,000 to about 105,000, which they also had a right to do. But when a labor organization does all this in order to obtain the passage of legislation which will selfishly benefit such a labor union and enable it eventually, through the "closed shop" device, to control who shall be employed, it is bound to backfire.

From Our Readers

No Dumping, Please!

Editor, The Salem News:

What has become of the city dump?

It should be included in the Operation SPIC program, not just for this month but "always."

We "country cousins" would love to be included in your program, too, by urging the "city scoundrels" who drive right past your city dump, sometimes two or three times farther away to dump their trash, junk, rubbish, etc., along our country roads and fields, beautiful ravines with babbling streams or just anywhere they decide to stop. We live on these country roads — we use them every day of the year—the "junk piles" certainly do nothing for our country-side; they are "eyesores."

On a side road north of Salem people drive their cars up to two different signs that are conspicuous and large enough for anyone to read "no dumping;" there they get out of their cars and dump out their garbage, whatever it may be. If seen they look at you rather sheepishly—grin, get back in their cars and drive away. There are many, many such persons and places in this vicinity.

Another case is of a nicely painted house, a well-kept yard where small children play, well screened doors and windows. This mother is an ambitious woman endeavoring to keep her environment clean and safe as possible to raise their children—yet not a stone's throw from their front yard quite frequently all year around cars stop to dump their junk in an otherwise beautiful ravine. Just a fly breeding haven. Would you like to live there or nearby?

Another place, although not a place of great beauty, has been used for sometime for a "city dump or such" is about 2½ miles north on Route 62. It certainly doesn't do anything to improve the landscape there for all of heavily travelled Route 62 tourists, motorists to see.

Couldn't some of your city trucks be used and some of your helpers volunteer to gather up that trash and find a more obscure place to dump it?

There are many places in our country fields and woods that could be used for such places without tramping on people's toes, making breeding places for flies or eyesores to anyone driving past. It is true, I suppose that all of these offenders are not city folks, but without much doubt the highest percentage of them are.

Offenders, whoever you may be, do you know that the law protects the man who catches you doing this thing and turns the table on you by gathering up your trash and distributing it in your own front yard?

Couldn't we, your "country-cousins," be considered somewhat in your Operation SPIC? We are every bit as proud of our homes and farms, however large or small, and those of our friends and neighbors as you folks in town and proud of yours.

We wish you every success in your Operation SPIC.

BIBLE QUOTATION

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal.—Mat. the 25:46.

The world is not alone in being full of a number of things. An Oregon doctor found a pocket knife and a key in a man.

termittently. Emphasis was placed to no small extent also on the "red" issue. Rep. Smathers, a veteran of the U. S. Marines, denounced Sen. Pepper for leaning toward the Communist side. Photos were displayed in the newspapers showing Senator Pepper on the same speakers' platform with Henry Wallace and Paul Robeson, the Negro singer who has been accused of Communist sympathies. Again and again Rep. Smathers lashed out at Sen. Pepper on the Communist issue.

PEPPER made a very powerful campaign in reply. His meetings were well attended. His oratorical ability made a deep impression on audiences everywhere. But when a political tide sets in, nothing can stop it. The tide that swept Sen. Pepper into defeat really started when he aligned himself with Henry Wallace. The senator at the July 1948 Democratic National convention alienated the Trumanites. He got the cold shoulder from President Truman himself. Only in the last few days of the campaign did the federal officeholders get busy in behalf of Sen. Pepper.

The best way perhaps to interpret the result of the Florida contest is to imagine what would have been said by the Trumanites if Sen. Pepper had won. There would have been a chorus of cheers from the administration about the endorsement given the "Fair Deal" by the people. It would have been accompanied by the boasts of labor-union chiefs that the Taft-Hartley Act had been "repudiated by the people." The advocates of socialized medicine would have "pointed with pride."

None of this happened. So it can be said that "left wingism" suffered a setback in Florida as it did in Britain and Australia and New Zealand, which indicates that the voters are tiring of big promises and big expenses.

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

At least one of these is useful in the treatment of Addison's disease, a condition which is caused by destruction of the adrenal gland by tuberculosis or some other condition and which results in low blood pressure, pigmentation of the skin and a number of other serious signs. This portion of the gland is also the source of compound E or cortisone which has received so much attention in connection with rheumatoid arthritis.

There are many other fascinating things about these small glands. At the present time it is safe to say that the adrenal glands, their functions and the hormones which they secrete are being subjected to more intensive investigation than any other part of the human body of equal size.

Exports To U.S.

By PETER EDSON

Europeans Seek To Increase Shipments

WASHINGTON GRADUALLY, this idea of "buying European" products seems to be catching on as a substitute for doling out billions of Marshall Plan dollars to close the balance of trade gap.

The Dutch liner Noordam steamed up Delaware Bay to Philadelphia a few days ago. It carried a million dollars worth of merchandise made in The Netherlands. The ship was welcomed by a Coast Guard escort and the mayor. Fireboats spouted colored water and the bands gave with the patriotic music of both countries.

Early in May all this Dutch merchandise will go on sale at a department store which—for the sake of avoiding any free advertising—may be known as Gimbel's.

Behind this important international merchandising stunt there is quite a story. Nobody can take full credit for thinking it up, but several people played prominent parts.

Last fall Netherlands Trade Commissioner Loll Schmit came over to see what could be done about increasing American imports from his country. G. A. Burgers, commercial attaché at the Netherlands Embassy in Washington made the observation that "they would have to be blunt about this." It was a diplomatic way of saying that they would have to get out and sell the idea. Burgers has since become an American citizen, and dropped out of the picture.

ANYWAY, a date was made with Arthur Kauffman, executive director of Philadelphia Gimbel's. He said he wanted to make a trip to Europe anyway. So early this year he went to The Netherlands to see what they had to sell.

The Dutch gave him the number one hospitality treatment, which included tea with the Queen Empress Juliana. She is supposed to have contributed the idea that there should be some cultural aspects to this merchandising experiment.

Arrangements were made to have Juliana's own Grenadier Regimental Band accompany the boatload of exports. And to accompany some modern Dutch paintings which will actually go on sale, the loan of some Dutch old masters was arranged, for exhibition only.

If it can be arranged, Prince Bernhard, Juliana's consort, who has been touring the United States, will inspect the merchandise.

Tiny Adrenal Glands Vital To Body

TWO tiny glands called the adrenals lie on the upper ends of each of the kidneys. Much will be heard of these glands in the next few years even though they weigh only a fraction of an ounce.

Each gland is made up of two principal parts, one called the medulla and the other the cortex. Both of these exert a vital influence on the body through the secretions which they manufacture and empty into the blood stream. The adrenal gland also has close connections with other hormone-producing glands throughout the body.

The adrenal medulla manufactures a substance which is commonly known as epinephrine or adrenalin. This hormone acts on the muscles which surround the blood vessels and thus has much to do with maintaining blood pressure. It has an effect also on the use of starches in the body.

Adrenalin is poured into the system whenever a person becomes excited or angry, and it has a great deal to do with the flushing or pallor which affects so many people when they get angry. It is probably adrenalin which gives that tremendous temporary energy which people experience under great emotion or excitement.

The adrenal cortex secretions influence the kidney function and the use of many of the minerals or elements necessary to the proper behavior of the human body. This portion of the gland produces a great number of hormones — how many is not yet known.

At least one of these is useful in the treatment of Addison's disease, a condition which is caused by destruction of the adrenal gland by tuberculosis or some other condition and which results in low blood pressure, pigmentation of the skin and a number of other serious signs. This portion of the gland is also the source of compound E or cortisone which has received so much attention in connection with rheumatoid arthritis.

There are many other fascinating things about these small glands. At the present time it is safe to say that the adrenal glands, their functions and the hormones which they secrete are being subjected to more intensive investigation than any other part of the human body of equal size.

State Rests In Heer Trial

Student Tells Of OSU Campus Shooting

COLUMBUS, May 4—(AP)—The state expects to rest its first degree murder case against a former Ohio State University student today.

Prosecutor Ralph J. Bartlett said he intends to call three witnesses today in the trial of James D. Heer, student from Euclid, O., accused of slaying a fraternity brother last Nov. 12 after a Homecoming dance.

The victim was Jack T. McGraw, 21, managing editor of the University's daily newspaper, from Norwood, O.

A state witness testified yesterday that shortly before McGraw was shot with a .45 caliber automatic pistol Heer said he was going "out on a criminal orgy."

The shooting took place near the Delta Tau Delta fraternity house early in the morning after a group of students tried to get Heer to give up his weapon, it was testified earlier.

McGraw is a 22-year-old Freshman law student from Bellaire, O., living at the fraternity house. He said he was within five feet of Heer before the shooting.

Quoting Heer as saying he was "going out on a criminal orgy," McGraw testified:

"I told him it was silly and somebody was liable to get hurt and he was going to regret it later."

Police said after Heer's arrest that he had taken the automatic pistol from a dresser drawer in the room of another student, Richard Moore, 23, Portsmouth, O.

Moore testified that Heer fired a shot at him and that "the bullet kicked dirt on me."

He and Heer had done some shooting in the country about a week or two before that, Moore said he had the pistol because he had the pistol because he was a member of a Marine Corps Reserve pistol team.

Two hours after the shooting, Heer entered a construction office and asked Pat Keenan, operating engineer on duty then, to call police. Keenan testified yesterday.

"He (Heer) said he had shot a man," Keenan said. When Heer called the Ohio highway patrol, he said, according to Keenan:

"When you come out, I want you to bring a Tommy gun. When you get here I'm going to run and I want you to shoot me."

When highway patrolmen arrived Heer gave himself up quietly.

Church Colleges 'Wishy Washy'

Methodist Educator Plays Programs

CINCINNATI, May 4—(AP)—"Wishy-washy" was the label hung on church colleges here last night by Dr. George W. Crane, psychologist and columnist.

Dr. Crane, speaking before the general board of education of the Methodist Church, said:

"Church colleges are becoming so wishy-washy they are nothing to anyone, yet they were established originally by Bible societies who felt they had something special to offer students."

He added that "the kids aren't getting their money's worth out of college."

Dr. Crane, who is a Methodist, said he was having one of his two sons, now attending DePauw University at Greencastle, Ind., transfer to another school because he was being taught "a lot of impractical subjects."

DePauw is a Methodist college. Dr. Crane, a graduate of Northwestern University, also a Methodist school, said, "I studied a lot of literature at Northwestern University but not once was I assigned to read any chapter of the Bible in my seven years there."

He asserted that one of the facts was that "we are letting our schools get out of the hands of Methodists." In that connection he asserted Northwestern is headed by a non-Methodist and he added, "the Roman Catholics don't do things like that."

Dr. Crane recommended more practical courses in college such as applied psychology and studies on marriage.

Miss Mary Shadow of Nashville, Tenn., the only woman representative in the Tennessee legislature, was another speaker last night.

Journalism Awards Made For Farm Writing

COLUMBUS, May 4—(AP)—Klippart awards in journalism went to Thomas Winemiller of Sidney, Stanley Geiser of Orrville, Glenn Schotten of Hubbard, Edward Call of Kent, Mary Sampson of Portsmouth and Olen Mann of Delta, yesterday.

The Klippart awards are offered annually by Ohio State University's college of agriculture. They go for writing ability in the field of agriculture. The awards were established in 1937 by a memorial bequest in honor of the late John Hancock Klippart, one-time secretary of the state board of agriculture.

GAIN RAISE

YOUNGSTOWN, May 4—(AP)—An agreement providing 12½ per cent pay increases ended a one-day strike of cement finishers here yesterday. The raise brought their pay to $2.37 an hour. Plasterers who joined in the walkout remain on their former pay scale of $2.55 hourly. About 80 workers were involved in the strike.

SHIPS HAVE RADAR

CLEVELAND, May 4—(AP)—The largest ore-carrying fleet on the Great Lakes—Pittsburgh Steamship Co.'s 61 freighters—now is completely equipped with radar sets, the firm announced today. The project was started five years ago and the last nine vessels in the fleet got the equipment within the last 10 days.

Primary Turnout 214,000 More Than Voted In 1946

COLUMBUS, May 4—(AP)—Over 214,000 more Ohioans voted in Tuesday's gubernatorial races than in 1946, the last non-presidential election primary.

Complete unofficial totals today showed Republicans and Democrats marked 982,659 ballots this year, compared with 668,595 in 1946, a gain of 214,064.

The secretary of state's office had predicted no more than 800,000 votes because of low interest in the outcome.

Just what happened wasn't too clear. Some observers felt voters turned out because of the heated race between Don H. Ebricht, who won the GOP nomination, and his closest rival, Mayor James A. Rhodes of Columbus.

Others credited it to Toledo Mayor Michael V. Disalle's contest with Joseph T. Ferguson, who took the Democrat U. S. senatorial nomination.

Still others said it was Ohio's determination to "get out and show the world" it was behind Republican Sen. Robert A. Taft despite labor and Truman administration opposition to him.

And then there was Gov. Frank J. Lausche's vote-getting magic that brought him renomination without a campaign. He carried every county. Lausche paced both Democrat and Republican candidates for governor in the voting. He had 362,916 votes to win easily over two other Democrats—Clarence H. Knisley with 63,869 and Joseph Torok, Jr., with 16,876.

Don H. Ebricht polled 336,187 votes to win the Republican nomination from three rivals. They were Rhodes with 157,207 votes; Edward J. Hummel 25,359, and George V. Woodling with 20,237. Ebricht carried 79 counties.

Republican votes cast for governor this year totalled 197,207 more than in 1946. Democrats had an increase of 116,855. The total 1950 Republican vote was 538,998; the Democrat total 443,661. In 1946, the Republican total was 341,791; Democrat 326,804.

Lausche and Torok were the Democrat candidates in 1946 while Thomas J. Herbert and Albert E. Payne were the Republican rivals that year.

Taft, who was unopposed last Tuesday, received 475,049 votes. That was 71,456 more than the combined total for Ferguson and six other Democrats with 403,539. Ferguson polled 157,192 and Disalle 105,508. Ferguson carried 78 counties.

In 1946 when Sen. John W. Bricker won the Republican nomination with 330,064 in a field of six candidates, the combined senatorial contests was 940,859. GOP and Democrat vote in the Willis D. Gradison, chairman of the Taft for Senate committee, said in Cincinnati last night:

"It is not too much to say that the forthcoming senatorial race in Ohio is the most important in the history of the state and will determine for many years the course of American history."

Saying that people shouldn't take the Taft campaign lightly he added:

"Left-wingers from every section of the country are gathering here because they feel that Senator Taft's victory will eliminate Communist and Socialist programs from the future of America."

"The top brass of the various labor unions have announced that they will spend huge sums of money to beat Senator Taft under the leadership of the PAC and the League for Political Action."

"Already their radio broadcasters are misrepresenting Senator Taft's record and position on current issues every day."

Taft toured nearly every county in Ohio late last year and early in 1950 to give a series of "report to the people" speeches. He plans to cover the ground again in an intensive campaign hitting all congressional districts.

LEVIES LOSE

AKRON, May 4—(AP)—Akron and Summit county voters turned down poor relief levies in Tuesday's election which drew an off-year record turnout of 72,202 voters. A recreation levy also was beaten.

TAKE IT EASY, MOM!

DON'T WORRY! Washing dishes will never be habit-forming for small boys. This is just a special service for Mother's Day.

But Mom is used to special service every single day of the year—electric service, of course! Dependable, hard-working, willing, it stands ready to help her cook and clean and sew, wash, iron and entertain. It's like an extra pair of hands that take a lot of work out of housework.

Yet electricity costs so little! That's because your friends and neighbors in this company, under sound business management, have combined their skill and efficiency to make electric service the biggest bargain in Mom's budget—and yours, too. For only pennies a day, Mom can take it easy. So can you.

Fellowship Day Program Will Include Soloist

Mrs. Joseph Hill, soloist at the Youngstown Synagogue, will sing in the World Fellowship Day program at 2:30 p. m. Friday in the Methodist Church.

The Salem District Council of Church Women is sponsoring the program which will be concluded with a get-acquainted hour for representatives of all faiths and nationalities in the audience.

The theme, "Our Daily Bread," will be discussed by Mrs. T. A. Mercer, and Dr. Ching Shing Lu, assistant house physician at Salem City Hospital, will tell about present-day China. Council officers will be elected. Mrs. J. C. Pottorf is council president.

Social Affairs

Mrs. C. H. Waldron To Direct Methodist Women's Society

ACTIVITIES OF THE METHODIST Women's Society of Christian Service for the coming fiscal year will be directed by Mrs. C. H. Waldron. She was named president at the Wednesday afternoon session of the society in the church, succeeding Mrs. O. A. Naragon. Mrs. Richard C. Swogger, wife of Rev. Swogger, pastor, was given the post of honorary vice president. Other officers are:

Vice president, Mrs. T. W. Purviance; recording secretary, Mrs. Irving Megraill; promotion secretary, Mrs. James Primm; treasurer, Miss Phyllis Welsh; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Lester Baldwin; spiritual life secretary, Miss Della Steepes; secretary of missionary education, Mrs. Howard Gillett; secretaries of Christian social relations and local church activities, Mrs. Harold A. Zealley and Mrs. Russell Moore;

Secretary of student work, Mrs. Harry Loria; secretary of youth work, Mrs. Richard Albright; secretary of children's work, Mrs. Stanley Starkie; status of women, Mrs. O. A. Naragon; secretary of literature and publications, Mrs. Fred Capel; secretary of supply work, Mrs. Carl J. Lehwald.

General theme for the meeting was "The Christian Home" and Mrs. Rex Reich, program chairman, gave a talk on "Mother Around The World." Mrs. Waldron explained "The Christian Home Movement."

Mrs. Carl Willman was devotional leader. Mrs. Swogger sang a solo, "Bless This House," with Mrs. Homer S. Taylor as the accompanist.

Mrs. Harry Loria contributed a resume of the day she attended the recent general W. S. C. S. assembly meeting in Cleveland. Mrs. Waldron was named a delegate to the W. S. C. S. officers meeting May 16-17 in the Akron Main Street Methodist Church.

In recognition of Mother's Day, Mrs. William Fickes, mother of 11 children, was presented a nosegay Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkbride and her twin sister, Mrs. Mary Kirkbride, the oldest mothers present, received the beautiful spring flower arrangement from the tea table. Mrs. Lloyd Gordon presented the awards.

Mrs. O. C. Hoover and her committee from Group 6 served the refreshments and Mrs. George Stapleton poured. The June 7 meeting will be in the church.

Wedding Date Chosen By Shirley Leprich

Miss Shirley Leprich has chosen Sunday, June 4, as the date of her marriage to Donald Peterson.

The ceremony will be performed at 7 p. m. at a closed wedding in the Emmanuel Lutheran Church. Rev. John Bauman, pastor will officiate.

Miss Leprich is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leprich of the Newgarden rd. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Peterson of Chagrin Falls.

Presbyterians Plan Party For May 12

PRESBYTERIAN mothers and daughters will hold a dessert party at 7 p. m. Friday, May 12. A program will be presented.

The May committee, headed by Mrs. W. D. King and Mrs. James Campbell, are the dessert party hostesses. Reservations may be made by calling the monthly committee chairmen by May 10.

Mrs. Alfred Fitch and her committee is arranging for the program of movies which will include the colored motion pictures of the Easter-Egg hunt enjoyed by children of the church. The musical program will be in charge of Mrs. Hilles Linton.

The welcome to the group will be given by Mrs. Maurice Sadler, president of the Women's Association. The mother-daughter toast will be given by Mrs. J. C. Pottorf and her daughter, Rita Clare.

Personal Notes

Cpl. James E. Laughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Laughlin of 759 E. Fourth st., and Pfc. John I. Boles, son of Sam Boles of Salem, are among the 4,000 troops of V Corps and its attached units participating in the biggest air-ground maneuver in history—"Exercise Swarmer." The exercise is being held at Fort Bragg, N. C.

Mrs. Christina Lackey and Robert Somerville of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Millard of Toledo returned to their homes Tuesday after having been here to attend the funeral of James Craig.

Rev. R. J. Hunter, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will be in Cincinnati Friday and Saturday attending a Boy Scout conference.

Marriage Licenses

John J. Foleno, 33, craneman, Sewickley, Pa., and Rose C. Natalino, 32, potter, East Liverpool. Lawrence Drum, 28, carpenter, Newell, W. Va., and Ruth L. Green, 25, telephone operator, East Liverpool.

Music Study Club To Sponsor Concert In Methodist Church

MRS. CARL J. BEECHER, president of the Salem Music Study Club, will give the welcome for the concert at 4 p. m. Sunday in the Methodist Church.

Sponsored by the club, the concert will mark the opening of the National Music Week, May 7-14, observance here. Mrs. W. J. Hunston is music week chairman. Mrs. Paul H. Weaver will strike the opening note in her organ number, "Sonata in E Minor," which is the first number on the program. Other selections are as follows:

String trio, "Adagio" from Pathétique Sonata and "Valse Bluette," Mrs. Sterling Jackson, violin; Mrs. Carl Beecher, cello, and Mrs. Homer S. Taylor, piano; soprano solos, "I Talked To God Last Night" and "The Star," Miss Dorothy Chilson, with Mrs. Loren Early at the piano; vocal duet, "Serenade" and "The Desert Song," Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rhodes, Jr., with Mrs. W. J. Hunston as accompanist.

Euphonium solo, "Castles In The Air," Robert Zimmerman accompanied by Ben Bailey; piano solo, "Joy of Autumn," Miss Dorothy Pozniko; vocal selection, "I Shall Not Pass Again This Way," Mary Steffel, Jean Cameron, Robert Tarzan and Everett Crawford; vocal selection, "Beautiful Saviour," John Votaw, Robert Tarzan, Richard Dougherty and Everett Crawford; violin solos, "Finnish Chanson and Dance" and "Circus," Miss Nancy Bailey, with her brother Ben at the piano.

Organ and piano duet, "Air Varié," Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Taylor; vocal selections, "Salutation," "Master of Human Destiny," "My Love Dwelt In a Northern Land," "Deep River," "Surrey With a Fringe On Top" and "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" by the Salem High School Chorus, directed by Thomas E. Crothers, supervisor in the Salem public schools.

Mrs. Raymond Stiver will direct the quartet numbers, while Miss Marguerite Vincent will be the accompanist. Miss Bailey's first number, "Finnish Chanson and Dance" was composed by Howard Pardee, director of the Salem High School band. There is no admission charge for the concert.

Forsythia For Homes On Sale By Club

Three phases of Operation SPIC are gaining impetus as Salem organizations cooperating with the Jaycees, sponsors of the two-month Salem Paints, Improves, Cleans campaign, launch their programs. Forsythia branches are now on sale at the Operation SPIC E. State st. booth. The Garden Club is sponsoring this project by selling the bush at the cost price of 15 cents each. Club women will be at the booth for the next two weeks.

Boy Scouts have started to clean up vacant lots, back yards and garages belonging to busy residents who realize the importance of cleaning up areas where weeds, trash and rubbish create health and fire hazards and are unsightly evidences of lack of civic pride.

The scouts charge 35 cents an hour for their work and the proceeds are used to secure troop equipment and to send representatives to the International Jamboree this summer in Valley Forge. Residents should call Salem 6612 to contract for scouts.

Miss Ada Zerbs, Operation SPIC's volunteer secretary, today said Salem women who have the time to help operate the booth are welcome to call her and their time will be sincerely appreciated.

brief talks were: Grand Counselor Harry Gillogly of Zanesville, Grand Junior Counselor G. C. Van Orsdel of Warren, Past Grand Counselor Joseph Yoder of Canton, Flavel Heyman of Columbus, public relations representative, and Chelo Cissna of Cleveland, senior counselor of Euclid Council. Wives of these officers accompanied them.

Approximately 100 guests attended the dinner, prepared by members of Salem Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. Rex Peich, senior counselor, was toastmaster.

Mrs. Richard Capel was awarded the floral centerpiece. Canasta and dancing rounded out the evening's entertainment.

Honored On Birthday

A group of neighbors of Mrs. D. S. Balsley of W. Fourth st. gathered at her home, Tuesday evening to make happy her birthday. She was showered with greeting cards and also presented a gift of money. Bingo was a diversion. Mrs. Walter Sweeney, who arranged this delightful event, served a lunch.

Cadet Arthur R. Cutcliff Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Cutcliff, of R. D. 1, Damascus rd., has been promoted to the rank of cadet second lieutenant at the Valley Forge Military Academy, Wayne, Pa.

Students Enjoy Two Assemblies

Faculty Aids Pupils Choose New Courses

An assembly today and another yesterday entertained high school pupils with two widely different programs.

This morning Dr. Willis A. Sutton, former Atlanta, Ga., superintendent of schools, spoke on "Our American Heritage."

Wednesday afternoon the play, "Silver Wedding" was presented by the High School Thespian troupe. The plot of the show was built around the "We the People" program.

Roger Buehler was cast as the announcer. Others in the play were Treva Bush, Shirley Hill, Walt Mayhew, Harvey Mason, Helen Schuller, Willard Stamp and Don Coffee.

Production committeemen include Willard Stamp, George Cusack and Bob Roth, stage electricians; Don Mathews, stage props and curtain; Donna Stoffer, hand props and coach; JoAnn Conser and Kathy Umbach, decorating and painting.

James Tausch was the director. Marge Green was in charge of make-up and David White handled the sound and lights. George Cusack, Thespian president, managed the production with the assistance of Miss Irene Weeks, dramatics coach.

The Athletic Association will hold the final square dance of the season at 8 p. m. Friday in the gym. Arrangements for the affair are being made by Donna Stoffer, Helen Brenner, Rose Nocera, Betty Straub, Connie Gillet and Fay Stout.

Gilbert Edgerton will be the caller.

The high school faculty is holding a series of information meetings this week and next to assist pupils in learning the purposes and material to be studied in elective courses next fall. These discussions are held almost every evening after school to prepare pupils for filling out their fall schedule sheets, Principal B. G. Ludwig said.

The high school is being visited three or four times each week as the busy season is on for college representatives' talks with prospective college pupils. Representatives come to Salem from many of the states colleges and universities as well as nearby out-of-state schools.

Collusion Admitted By Youngstown Man

CLEVELAND, May 4—(AP)—David Friedman, 62, has admitted he and an associate in the bankrupt Youngstown Brewery, Inc., hid $14,925 in wartime "black market" profits to evade income taxes.

Changing his plea from innocent to guilty, the brewery president told a federal court jury here yesterday that he and A. H. Weitzman, 58, of Miami also put approximately $36,000 more out of tax reach by banking it in the name of Friedman's wife.

Both acts were in 1944, he said, when he and Weitzman were joint owners of the brewery.

The two went on trial here last Thursday before Judge Emerich B. Freed. Against them is a two-count indictment charging they evaded approximately $48,000 in federal income taxes in 1943 and 1944.

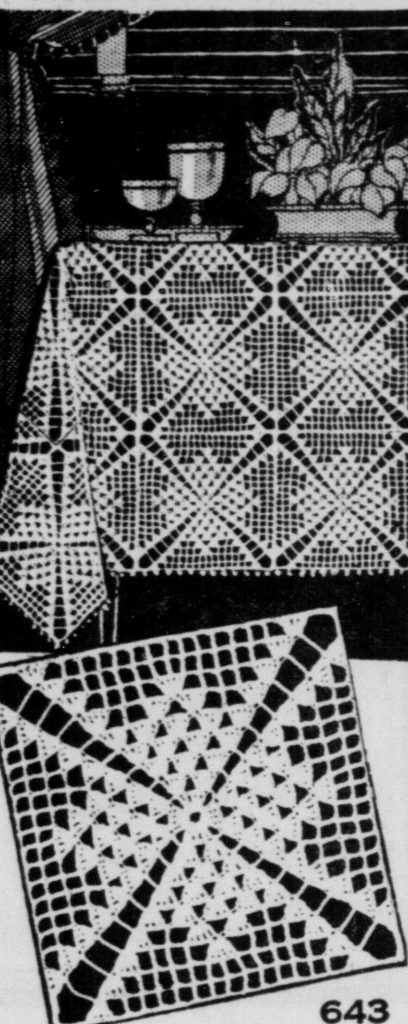

Friedman, who also heads a Youngstown, O., cartage firm, told the jury the brewery paid over-ceiling prices in the "black market" in 1944 for beer ingredients and then made over-ceiling sales to a Charleston, W. Va., beer distributing firm.

The 50-cent-a-case charge above the ceiling price was paid by the distributing firm in personal checks to Friedman, he said. Judge Freed ordered Friedman, who will return to the witness chair today, to the Cuyahoga county jail. He will be sentenced later.

EX-NEWSMAN APPOINTED
WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—Appointment of a former Ohio newspaperman as head of the New York City Information Bureau of American Forest Products Industries was announced yesterday.

James B. Craig was named to the post. He formerly was on the staffs of the Athens, O., Messenger and the old Akron, O., Times-Press. He was graduated from Kent State University.

COLUMBUS, May 4—(AP)—City Safety Director Charles C. Cole resigned yesterday, effective June 15, "to enter another field of endeavor." The safety director here is boss of the fire and police departments.

Closing Of Wright Field Store Debated

WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—A house armed services subcommittee considered today whether to close the commissary at Wright-Patterson Air Force base near Dayton, O.

Chairman Philbin (D-Mass.) said it must shut down if the 2-500 Air Force people at the base have "adequate commercial facilities conveniently available."

Storekeeper Jack Eavey, representing merchants of Dayton, Xenia, Fairborn and Springfield, told a hearing yesterday the commissary should be closed. "There are adequate facilities in the Fairborn and Skyway areas," he declared.

Rep. Clarence J. Brown (R-Ohio) termed an air force food-cost survey "phony." The survey showed food cost about 30 per cent more at two nearby commercial stores than in the commissary.

Brown said he arranged a survey by a market analyst. It showed prices in the commercial stores were only 13.6 to 16.6 per cent higher than at the base, he said.

Capt. Albert M. Puncsak, commissary manager, said he made the Air Force survey. It was compiled with the managers of the two stores on an item by item basis the officer told the committee.

Final action was put over until a later meeting but no definite date was set.

AGAINST CRIME INQUIRY
WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—Sens. Robert A. Taft and John W. Bricker of Ohio yesterday voted against the Democratic leadership's Kefauver plan for a special committee to investigate crime. The plan passed, 36-35, with Vice-President Barkley casting the tie-breaking ballot.

Husband Seeks $50,000 For Wife's Death

LISBON, May 4—A $50,000 damage action has been filed in the court here as the result of a traffic accident on State Route 45, three miles south of Salem last March 17, in which Mrs. Dorothy Wilt, 30, was fatally injured.

The action filed by the decedent's husband, Leonard C. Wilt of Salem, is against Milton D. Harmon of East Palestine, driver of a truck which demolished Mrs. Wilt's car as she was attempting to make a left turn.

A $15,000 damage action has also been filed in the court here against the Kresge Company by Adeline M. Wagner of Beloit, R. D., who charges the defendant with negligence as the result of a fall in the store of the defendant company in Salem, last Aug. 20, causing personal injuries.

TURN DOWN LEVY

For the second consecutive year, the same team has captured the Quaker City American League championship.

The Quaker Steak five, including Jim Jackson, Ed Pukalski, Bill Pauline, Mike Hutter, John Balta and Wink Miller, won the title Monday night by decisively beating their nearest rival, Mullins, three games. Last year the same group, under the name of Columbiana Electric, won first place.

Monday they shot a neat 2890, second best team score of the year, Mullins had been in position to win the title by taking all three games.

Ed Pukalski led the Steaks and the league with a sizzling 635 series, including games of 180, 243 and 212. Jim Jackson of the Steaks had a 601 set as did Don Krauss, the houseman, for the Damascus Businessmen.

Needing two victories to clinch the Q. C. National League title Monday night, Fernengel's Colts came through with three wins to wrest the championship from Gordon Soft Water.

The team is composed of Henry and Tom Reese, Merle Caldwell, Lee Christen, Dick Konnerth and Arch Wentz.

Whitcomb of Gonda's had a 598 series to lead the loop on the final night, with Don White of the Amvets trailing with 580.

$7,000 In Cash Found, Remains Unclaimed

DAYTON, May 4—(AP)—Four months ago trash collectors found more than $7,000 in cash in a paper box—and so far no one has come forth to claim it.

City Manager A. C. Bergman of suburban Oakwood said the box of money was found in the back yard of Louis Preonas' home in Oakwood. The money is in a bank now.

Preonas is president of the Bluebird Baking Co. of Dayton.

Bergman yesterday for the first time told of the money being found. He said the FBI has been asked to check on two California prisoners who visited the Preonas home in December, 1947. FBI arrested the men in Dayton for a Los Angeles murder-robbery, Bergman said.

MAY CURB ENGINES

INDIANAPOLIS, May 4—(AP)—The power advantage of alcohol-burning supercharged engines may be eliminated next year at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway and other American Automobile Association-sponsored tracks.

The AAA contest board will meet informally and without press releases some time before the 500-mile race May 30. They'll talk over a proposal to restrict all racers to commercial gasoline next year. Final action will be taken next winter.

Youth Awarded $6,000 For Eye Loss

CLEVELAND, May 4—(AP)—Nine-year-old Raymond Rickerd had a common pleas jury award of $6,000 today for his left eye which was removed after a pecking by a vicious rooster when he was three years old.

Dudley Rickerd, the father, sued Miss Frances M. Schmitt for $25,000 charging that a rooster she owned attacked the lad in 1944 in the yard of the Rickerd home. Raymond's 11-year-old brother beat off the rooster with a baseball bat, it was testified. The father said the child's eye was so badly damaged from the pecks it had to be removed.

The suit was first tried in 1946 when a jury was unable to reach a decision.

Attorneys for the defendant contended the rooster had never harmed anybody, and the boy might have injured his eye in a fall.

Mather Gives Key To Boosters Success

"The success and activity of a good Boosters club depends largely on the coach," Charles V. Mather, football coach at Massillon High School, told members of the Leetonia Community Boosters club at the Eagles lodge rooms, Leetonia, Wednesday.

Speaking from experience at Leetonia, Hamilton and Massillon High schools, Mather said "a live, wide awake and hard working coach is the key to a successful club, because any club requires not only the cooperation, but the constant prodding, from a football coach to be effective."

"After all," the tutor of Ohio's AP schoolboy champions for 1948 and 49 said, "a Boosters club is only vital to a coach who's working hard and truly interested in his work. A lazy coach, or one not too ardent in his efforts, doesn't want a Boosters club."

Explaining the functioning of the Massillon Boosters, Mather pointed out that a club should offer to do what its football coach requires during a season and the coach, he emphasized, must continually present those requests.

Leland Helt, president of the Leetonia club, introduced Mather, his assistant coach, Paul Schofer, and Dr. Paul Beaver, member of the board of education.

Dr. Beaver introduced the new Leetonia superintendent, Paul Rommel, who spoke briefly. He and Dr. Beaver then left the session to attend a board of education meeting.

Lou Will Pitch Lemon In Final

Beantowners Hard On Bob Feller; Win 7-2

BOSTON, May 4—(AP)—Only a win today can save the Cleveland Indians the ignominy of losing all the games in their first 1950 series with the Boston Red Sox.

The Sox beat them, 7-2 yesterday to run the count in games to 2-0. It was the first time pitcher Ellis Kinder ever won a start against Cleveland.

Manager Lou Boudreau will use Bob Lemon as the starting Indian pitcher today. Lemon, who has won and lost one, will attempt to bust up a three-game Tribe losing streak.

His opponent will be Mel Parnell, who has won two and lost none.

Troubled by a lack of long-ball hitting, the Indians were saved again yesterday from a shutout by Joe Gordon. Although he has only a .161 average, the second baseman got a home run in the eighth and scored the only other Tribe run in the fourth. He doubled then and came home on Mickey Vernon's fly out. Gordon scored the only run for the Indians the day before.

SO FAR Boudreau's hopes that Luke Easter would supply the big bat have not come true. The rookie right fielder has gotten five hits in 31 chances for a .208 average. Only one of his bingles went for an extra base.

Boston's rookie situation, on the other hand, was excellent yesterday, and the day before that. Walter Dropo, called up from the Sox' Louisville farm Monday, had his second perfect day at bat. The six-foot, five-inch first baseman clouted a home run and a single off Bob Feller and drew two walks. The day before he hit a triple and a single and walked twice.

His fifth inning homer scored Tom Wright who had singled and his sixth inning single scored Bobby Doerr. The Sox chased Feller and got three other runs in the sixth on hits by Ted Williams, Vern Stephens, Doerr, Wright and Birdie Tebbetts. Tebbetts' single, scoring Wright, was charged against Gene Bearden who relieved Feller.

Boston's other run was in the fourth when Dom DiMaggio singled and scored on Stephen's double.

Your Host Is Still Favorite In Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 4—The Kentucky Derby masterminds are unanimous today in the thought that Your Host will sizzle out of the starting gate in the $100,000 golden gallop Saturday and say:

"Come and catch me—if you can."

The speedy California express still holds as the favorite for this 76th running of America's most colorful turf event, which will see 13 or more three-year-old stars tackle the tough mile and one-quarter distance for the first time.

Four big questions are up for consideration, and all won't be answered until shortly after the field slams out of the barrier at Churchill Downs the day after tomorrow at 4:30 p. m. (EST).

1. Will the weatherman bring more rain and an off track, or will it be fast?

2. What horse is going out and attempt to run with Your Host's blazing speed, and try to keep him from stealing the race?

3. Can the soft of Alibhai-Boudoir II carry his speed all the way?

4. If not, who is the one most likely to come along and pick up all the blue chips?

As for the weather, the weatherman said some showers were possible Saturday.

Several trainers said "Let 'er

COLD WEAR—Mrs. I. S. Pardee competes in the Gold Vase Golf Tournament at Denham, Buckinghamshire, Eng., in a snow suit, muffler and ski hat with ear muffs. It was her way of meeting the cold, windy weather. Her smile is sunny even if the sky is not.

rain," while others were praying for clear skies and a fast track.

Harry Daniels, genial trainer of Bill Goetz's California Flyer, would prefer the latter. Your Host never has had to race in the mud. The stable isn't intrigued with the thought of having to find out Saturday whether or not the colt can click in the stuff.

Sub-Par Golf Needed In Greenbrier Open

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., May 4—(AP)—On the basis of practice rounds, the professional who wins the $10,000 Greenbrier Open tourney starting here today will have to shoot sub-par golf throughout the 72-hole medal test.

Many in the field of 23 have been cracking 70—par for the 6,368-yard Old White course—in test rounds.

Sammy Snead, the host pro who has not done so well in two previous tourneys here, has been hitting them in the upper 60s.

Little Norman Van Nida of Sydney, Australia, carded his second straight 66 yesterday.

Gene Sarazen, the veteran campaigner from Germantown, Pa., and Ben Hogan were stroking well. Both are making their first tournament start since the Master's at Augusta, Ga.

Eighteen holes will be played each day through Sunday.

Oma, Weinberg Are Disqualified

Cincy Bout Halted In 7th Due To Foul

CINCINNATI, May 4—(AP)—The Cincinnati boxing and wrestling commission arranged for a hurry-up hearing today over the disqualification last night of both participants in a heavyweight boxing match—Lee Oma of Detroit and Bill Weinberg of New York.

Both fighters were ordered to appear before the commission. Their purses have been held up pending the outcome of the hearing.

With the 2,827 fans booing lustily all the way, Referee Earl Butler let the fight go well into the seventh round and then stopped it, disqualifying both battlers for repeated foul tactics.

Veteran boxing observers said they couldn't recall when both participants in a heavyweight match had ever been disqualified. The disqualification brought another burst of boos from the crowd and a vigorous complaint from Promoter Sam Becker who said, "They had no business stopping."

BECKER ADDED, "Since both men were guilty why not let them go on with it?"

But Butler asserted "Both men committed almost every kind of a foul in all but the first round."

He mentioned particularly butting by Weinberg and heeling by Oma.

The disqualification figured to be a blow to Oma's hopes of getting a match soon with Ezzard Charles for the NBA world's heavyweight championship. Oma had won his last 13 fights in a row and is ranked No. 3 among the heavies by the NBA.

Becker had hoped to match Oma with Charles if the Detroit had won last night's scrap.

The boxing commission wasted no time getting into action after the fight was halted. It held a meeting in the Cincinnati Garden, scene of the fight, and then decided to forego any action until today.

The fight offered little in the way of action except for the butting and shoving. The Associated Press scorecard had Oma with a slight edge when Referee Butler called a halt to the proceedings. Oma suffered cuts around one eye and on the bridge of his nose. Weinberg also had a cut around an eye.

Baseball Magnates Meet In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, May 4—(AP)—Bigwigs of baseball—from both the major and minor leagues—swung into a series of meetings today that apparently were going to keep them so busy they wouldn't even have time for baseball.

The Cincinnati Reds and the Boston Braves were to open a series at Crosley Field but the magnates and league officials figured to be too busy in downtown meeting places to watch the game.

Topping the program was a meeting of the major-minor league executive council with baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

One of the items expected to be considered is a complaint by the Mexican League that American clubs are swiping the best players from the south of the border loop.

There was no word as to whether a committee from the Pacific Coast League would go to that group in an effort to have the Triple-A coast loop declared exempt from baseball's draft.

THE COAST League group, headed by League President Clarence Rowland, appeared before the minor league executive committee yesterday but no action was taken.

Rowland's complaint was that "the draft wrecks our baseball clubs."

He said Pacific coast fans don't want the good young players gobbled up in the draft just as they approach their peak. Rowland declared the Pacific Coast League would not agree to draft any players from the lower minors if the majors would let their boys alone.

Other meetings on the day's schedule involved the major league executive council, the rules committee and a jubilee celebration committee.

Commissioner Chandler said only routine business matters would come before the majors' executive council.

The jubilee committee is arranging a celebration for 1951 when the National League will be 75 years old and the American League 50 years old.

Merchants Win 5-4 In Season's First

Opening their Columbiana County League play in suitable fashion, the Salem Merchants took a tight 5-4 victory from New Springfield Wednesday evening at Centennial park.

The game went only five innings. Ken Schoeni singled home Tommy Scullion from second base for the winning run. The hit came with two out.

Scullion paced Salem at the plate with three hits in as many trips to the plate. The locals collected nine safeties, being outbatted by the visitors, who notched 10.

nomination battles in Tuesday's primary election.Sen. William Boyd of Cleveland, Democrat with a record of six assembly terms, blamed his defeat to opposition from the CIO and supporters of fair employment practices legislation. He was the only competing incumbent in Cuyahoga county to lose.Another upset occurred in the 23rd district composed of Mahoning and Trumbull counties.
There Sens. Clingan Jackson and Nicholas P. Bernard, both
Youngstown Democrats, lost out to Charles J. Carney of Youngstown, a CIO Rubber Worker official.The 23rd district, and three others, lose a senator in the next legislature because of reapportionment shifts. Four other districts gain a senator next session.Jackson was seeking his fifth legislative term; Bernard his third. Jackson was chairman of the senate finance committee and a member of the powerful

Jaunty Joe Confident

Ferguson Sure He'll Whip Taft In Fall

COLUMBUS, May 4—(AP)—What manner of man is Joe Ferguson, the choice of Ohio Democrats to battle U. S. Sen. Robert A. Taft next fall?

First off, Joseph T. Ferguson is a Harry Truman Democrat. He says he's for just about everything the President is fighting to put through Congress—including civil rights legislation and repeal of the Taft-Hartley law.

Diminutive Joe (he's five-foot-five) is no political novice, either. He's been state auditor 14 years and there was a time when he was the only elected Democrat in Ohio's statehouse. His term as auditor still has two years to go.

Ferguson's appearance is trim despite the fact he's 57 and a grandfather. He wears bifocal glasses and seems always to be beaming happily at the rest of the world.

But make no mistake. Ferguson, by temperament, is a fighter. He decided some time ago that, as he put it, "Joe Ferguson was the only Ohio Democrat capable of retiring Bob Taft to private life." Influential labor leaders didn't agree. They tried to convince him he should step out of the primary race for the good of the party. Their handpicked candidate—never actually revealed—was believed to be Murray D. Lincoln, a national farm leader.

Ferguson stuck out his chin, pounded the desk repeatedly during a two-hour conference with the labor men—and stayed in. His goal in the primary was to get more votes than his six opponents combined. He almost made it. Labor's original choice didn't contest the nomination.

Taft, the Republican congressional signal-caller, won re-nomination for a third term without opposition.

In the fall, Ferguson will have unqualified labor support. Taft, co-author of the labor-hated Taft-Hartley act, is the No. 1 political target for the unions this year.

Ferguson, like Mr. Truman and labor big wigs, heartily dislikes the T-H act. He says it "raises government interference to heights never reached before in our country in peace time." He wants a labor bill "fair and just" for labor, management and the public.

Ferguson was for Harry Truman in 1948—when many Democrats felt the President was a political liability. Joe stumped the state for Mr. Truman, and the President won Ohio's important 23 electoral votes by some 10,000 popular votes—or about 280,000 behind Ferguson's total.

In his own words, Ferguson is a "liberal with both feet on the ground." He feels Taft stands for reaction. In a recent speech, Ferguson said the U. S. would "still be living in the dark shadows of special privilege—and the depression" if the Democrats were not in control at Washington.

While labor didn't particularly want Ferguson—it wasn't because it didn't feel he wasn't a fine vote getter. The primary reason was that labor men, along with some other Democratic party stalwarts, felt Ferguson wasn't able to challenge Taft on national issues.

To Ferguson, that's poppycock. In an interview early today, flushed with victory, he confided he doesn't plan to attack the Republican party in the coming campaign: Just Taft.

"Taft doesn't represent the Republican party," Ferguson said. "He represents just a small segment of it. He's an isolationist. He's against federal aid to public schools. His record generally is bad—when considered against the good of the people."

"Ye, sir," said Joe, jutting out his chin. "I think I'll beat Taft by 250,000 votes."

SENTENCED to 8 months to 2 years in prison for lying to a Senate committee investigating influence-peddling in Washington, former White House intimate John Maragon, Greek-born ex-bootblack, is embraced by his wife after Federal Judge Jennings Bailey pronounces sentence in Washington.

Lie Plans Trip To Moscow For UN Cause

PARIS, May 4—(AP)—United Nations Secretary-General Trygve Lie will fly to Moscow May 10 to try to persuade Russia to agree to a meeting of world leaders with the Security Council at ending the cold war and averting a global catastrophe.

In an obvious reference to former, President Herbert C. Hoover's proposal to reorganize the U. N. without Russia and her satellites, Lie denounced any attempt to split the world permanently into two camps.

Lie told the reporters he hopes to see Prime Minister Stalin and place before him the secretary-general's plan to have the U. N. Security Council meet with "heads of states and with cabinet members of all nations."

"The most critical situation since 1945 has developed this year," he said, "not only for the United Nations but for the future of the world itself. We are at the crossroads."

Don Ebright Carries 79 Of 88 Counties

COLUMBUS, May 4—(AP)—Don H. Ebright carried 79 of the 88 counties in capturing the Republican nomination for governor.

The nine state treasurer lost to James A. Rhodes, who ran second in the four-man governor contest.

Rhodes, who is mayor of Columbus, lost his home county—Franklin—by 9,495 votes, but carried Jackson county, where he was born.

The eight other counties which Rhodes carried were Clark, Fayette, Knox, Licking, Logan, Madison, Marion and Union.

And, of course, the two other candidates in the race failed to carry a single county. They were Edward J. Hummel, former secretary of state, and George V.

Woodling, a Rocky River business man.

U. S. Shuts Door To Rev. Hewlett Johnson

WASHINGTON, May 4—(INS)—The United States permanently slammed the door today on Rev. Hewlett Johnson, "Red Dean of Canterbury," by barring him from ever touching American soil because of new information about his Communist sympathies. A State Department spokesman man confirmed that Johnson had been denied a transit visa which would have permitted him to leave Sydney, Australia, on a British plane for Vancouver with stops in Hawaii and California.

If you're planning to serve tea to a crowd you can plan on getting about 50 cups from one quarter pound of tea. Have both milk and lemon on the tea table so that the guests may take their choice.

Variety In Your Bread

SANDWICH TIME is almost any time at all. But they're never more popular than in spring and summer when you'll rely on them for auto trips, picnics, beach parties and outdoor teas. Shown above is an appetizing set-up. From dainty mouthfuls for the ladies to hefty triple-deckers for the he-men, there's an ideal sandwich for every occasion. Suit the bread to the fillings as shown in the picture—nutbread for cream cheese, enriched white for chicken, wheat or rye for ham or beef. Make your mixed fillings in generous portions, but don't forget the Bakers of America reminder that "bread is two-thirds of the sandwich." So the right bread is just as important as the filling.

BREAD—though not as prominent in daily diets as a generation ago—is nonetheless one of the most important and versatile foods of all time.

As bread or toast, it may be served in many different ways.

Consider, for example, garlic bread, a favorite with a spaghetti supper, or cheese bread, a luncheon in itself served with crisp vegetable salad. Then there are toasts: cinnamon, marmalade, Melba French and toast.

Let's begin with garlic bread which may be prepared in one of two ways. The second method is a bit quicker than the first.

Garlic Bread—I

Work one quarter pound of butter until it is soft. Bury one clove of garlic in it and let stand for two hours.

Cut a loaf of French bread into slices taking care not to cut all the way through. Spread garlic butter on one or both sides of each slice. Place in a 350-degree oven for about 10 minutes to heat through.

Garlic Bread—II

Prepare bread as in method I.

Rub small skillet or saucepan with a cut clove of garlic. Melt butter in the skillet. Grate another clove of garlic. Let stand in a warm place for a few minutes. Add to the melted butter. Spread on the sliced French bread and heat through for about 10 minutes in a 350-degree oven.

Cheese Bread

In make cheese bread, prepare a loaf of French bread as described. Spread each slice with butter or margarine. Between each slice of bread place a slice of sharp cheddar or York State cheese. Put in a pre-heated 350-degree oven until cheese begins to melt, 15 to 20 minutes.

Miscellaneous Toasts

Cinnamon toast is perhaps the favorite of them all. In its simplest form, it is no more than cinnamon and sugar sprinkled on hot buttered toast. There is, however, a delicious departure from the conventional cinnamon toast called grilled cinnamon toast.

To make it, toast the bread on one side only. Spread the untoasted side with butter and sprinkle with a mixture of one-half teaspoon cinnamon and one-fourth cup brown sugar. Place under the broiler for two or three minutes until the sugar begins to bubble. Serve immediately while piping hot.

Marmalade toast is a kind of cousin to broiled cinnamon toast. Simply spread one side of a piece of toast with butter or margarine, then spread with orange marmalade. Place under broiler till marmalade is heated through.

Melba toast is nothing more than thin slices of bread toasted until brown and crisp all the way through. To make good melba toast, the bread should be sliced half as thin as when it comes from the store. Spread slices on a baking sheet or on the oven rack. And bake at 400 degrees until crisp and browned through.

French Toast

In many homes, French toast is a favorite breakfast dish. Some like it with sirup, some with confectioners sugar, some with jam.

To make French toast, allow two eggs and one-fourth cup of milk to every five slices of bread. Beat eggs with the milk in a flat pan or shallow dish. Add one-fourth teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper. Melt a small amount of fat in a frying pan. Dip the slices of bread, one at a time, into the egg mixture, taking care to coat both sides. Put into melted fat and cook over low heat till browned on one side. Turn and brown on the other. Serve hot.

Senate Committee Hikes Social Security

WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—The Senate finance committee has approved larger increases in social security retirement benefits than are provided in a house-passed bill.

At the same time it voted against any increase for the next five years in the tax rate that finances the system.

The committee estimated that under its proposals individual benefit payments in the next decade would average 110 per cent higher than under present law, compared to the 100 per cent increase provided in the House bill.

The average basic benefit to a retired worker insured under the system now is about $26 a month. This would be increased by the Senate bill to about $49 a month, the committee said. As under the House bill, the present maximum family benefit of $85 a month would be raised to $150.

Final action on all parts of the Senate committee bill has not been taken, but Chairman George (D-Ga) told reporters he expects to have it ready for the Senate next week.

Large leaves of lettuce are attractive when a salad mixture is mounded on top of them. To separate the leaves in good condition, cut the core out of the head of lettuce with a small sharp knife. Then let cold water run into the head slowly until the pressure forces the leaves apart.

Nutritious Molasses Dishes

MOLASSES! A good sweetener for desserts made with nourishing eggs. Both are in plentiful supply.

Molasses-Sponge Cake
1 c. sifted cake flour
1/2 t. salt
5 eggs, separated
1/2 c. sugar
1/2 c. unsulphured molasses
1 T. grated orange rind
1 1/2 t. grated lemon rind
2 t. lemon juice

Heat oven to 325 degrees F. (moderately slow). Sift together flour and salt. Beat egg yolks with rotary or electric beater at medium speed until thick and lemon-colored. Gradually beat in sugar and molasses. Then, by the clock, beat with rotary or electric beater at slow speed an additional three minutes. Add orange rind, lemon rind, and juice. Add flour mixture, 1/3 at a time, mixing in each addition until smooth. When all flour has been added, beat until light and fluffy (about 1/2 minute). Beat egg whites until stiff enough to stand in peaks, but not dry; fold (by hand) into batter. Pour into a 9-inch, ungreased tube cake pan. Bake 45 minutes or until cake tests done. Turn cake pan upside down on wire cooler. If cake has not dropped out of pan when cold, loosen from sides with spatula. YIELD: one 9-inch cake.

Molasses Souffle
2 T. butter or margarine, melted
1/4 c. sugar
1/4 c. sifted enriched flour
1 c. milk, scalded
3 eggs, separated
1/3 c. unsulphured molasses
1/4 t. salt
1/4 c. sugar
1/4 t. nutmeg

Heat oven to 325 degrees F. (moderately slow). Mix first three ingredients in top of double boiler. Add milk; cook until very thick, stirring constantly. Beat egg yolks until light and lemon-colored. Beat molasses and nutmeg into egg yolks; add to cooked mixture. Add salt to egg whites; beat until stiff. Beat remaining 1/4 cup sugar, one tablespoon at a time, into egg whites; carefully fold into cooked mixture. Fill custard cups 3/4 full. Bake 45 minutes in pan containing 1 inch of hot water. Serve hot with whipped cream or plain. SERVES 8.

Peanut Brittle Pudding
1/4 c. sugar
3 T. cornstarch
Pinch of salt
1/4 c. cold milk
1 1/4 c. scalded milk
2 eggs, separated
1/4 c. unsulphured molasses

Mix first five ingredients. Add milk; cook until very thick, stirring constantly. Beat egg yolks until light and lemon-colored. Beat molasses and nutmeg into egg yolks; add to cooked mixture. Add salt to egg whites; beat until stiff. Beat remaining 1/4 cup sugar, one tablespoon at a time, into egg whites; carefully fold into cooked mixture. Fill custard cups 3/4 full. Bake 45 minutes in pan containing 1 inch of hot water. Serve hot with whipped cream or plain. SERVES 8.

Prune Custard
3 eggs, beaten slightly
1/2 c. unsulphured molasses
1/4 t. salt
1/2 c. strained prunes (5 oz. can)
2 c. milk, scalded
1/2 t. lemon extract

Mix first five ingredients. Add milk. Pour into six custard cups. Place cups on rack or jar lids in pan containing 2 inches hot water. Cover each cup with metal foil. Place cover on pan; steam, below boiling point, for 15 minutes or until custards are firm. If desired, bake in slow oven (300 degrees F.) in pan containing 2 inches hot water for 45 minutes or until custards are firm. SERVES 6.

*Use plain whole milk, diluted evaporated milk, or 6 tablespoons dry skim milk and 2 cups water.

Operation Variety
It's no. just the usual foods we tire of, sometimes it's the whole pattern of the meal. Most of us base our dinner operations on the idea of main dish, vegetable, salad, potatoes and dessert. But don't you sometimes feel that a change is in order, that the whole routine needs a little shuffling? Try it on a day when your schedule is particularly crowded, and make a supper party of it, just for the family. How about serving on trays, or on a card table in front of the fire.

Tuna salad is another light meal standby. Add diced unpeeled red apples along with the diced celery, and it gets a new tart flavor that's really something. Serve it on lettuce with hot buttered biscuits, honey or jam and a beverage, and who could ask for more.

Sometimes a substantial dessert can cover a multitude of omissions in a meal. A cream soup, for instance, with a dessert containing both apples and cheese for flavor and protein, is delicious and satisfying. This takes about an hour to bake, but you can mix it in a jiffy and go about your business while it cooks.

Apple Cheese Crisp
6 c. sliced apples
1/2 t. cinnamon
1/2 t. nutmeg
1 T. lemon juice
1/2 c. white corn syrup
1/2 c. sugar
2/3 c. sifted flour
1/4 t. salt
1/3 c. butter

1/4 lb. grated American cheese
Arrange apples in a greased baking dish. Sprinkle with spice. Mix: lemon juice, and syrup and pour over the apples. Combine flour and salt. Cut in the butter until mealy, then lightly stir in cheese. Sprinkle over the apples. Bake uncovered at 350 degrees for one hour. Serve warm with cream.

Everybody Likes Cake Rolls

CAKE rolls, plain or fancy, are praise-winners at a party, picnic, luncheon or dinner. They are as delightfully refreshing for a snack as for a Ladies' Aid tea. They're also fun to make—and beautiful to look at when you get them frosted and filled. They take a bit more time than a regular cake, but the end product is worth it.

For flawless results, beat the egg yolks so thick they stand in peaks. This is the most important step in getting a spongy, pliable cake that will roll nicely.

Here's how to make Party Special Cake Roll with Marshmallow Frosting.

Party Special
Combine four egg yolks and one tablespoon of cold water. Beat until yolks stand in peaks.

FLAKO® PIE CRUST MIX

Sure Results at Every Baking
You enjoy flaky pie crust every time with Flako because Flako ingredients are precision-mixed for sure results. And remember that Flako has the quality no other pie crust mix has been able to equal.

Add one cup of sugar gradually. Combine one cup of sifted cake flour, one teaspoon baking powder and one-fourth teaspoon salt. Add flour mixture to egg yolk mixture. Blend in one teaspoon green food coloring fold in four egg whites, beaten stiff.

Spread batter in waxed-paper-lined 10 1/2 by 15-inch cake pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes.

Looser sides and turn out on a towel dusted with powdered sugar. Remove waxed paper and trim crusts. Roll quickly with fresh sheet of waxed paper on inside of roll. Wrap in the sugared towel. Cool on a cake rack. Fill with Marshmallow Frosting. This recipe serves eight to 10 persons.

Marshmallow Frosting
Combine 48 marshmallows, three-fourths of a cup of hot water and one-fourth teaspoon of salt. Melt marshmallows over boiling water. Cool until slightly thickened and beat until fluffy. Fold in three-fourths cup of heavy whipped cream. Chill until partly set.

Unroll the cake and spread with half the frosting. Roll cake again. Spread the outside with remaining frosting. Top with one-half cup of crushed peppermint candy. Chill one to two hours before serving.

Dairy Foods Help Child Health

YOUNG ENGINEER refuels wisely on milk, cheese, fruit and bread, giving him a clear track to health.

MILK and other dairy foods, including cheese, evaporated milk, dry skimmed milk and ice cream play a major part in child nutrition. That's the advice of nutritionists and doctors.

Dr. Norman Survis, director of pediatrics, Westchester County, N. Y., believes milk and its products are basic and indispensable in order to maintain good nutrition from birth through adolescence.

"From good family diet surveys we have learned that several nutrients are most commonly lacking. These are chiefly calcium and protein, the best sources of which are milk and foods derived from milk. Certain vitamins supplied in enriched bread, flour, cereals meats and eggs," he says. He sums up this way: milk and milk products are essential to good nutrition for all children. A quart of milk daily supplies most of the protein need of the young child, and half the need at the beginning of adolescence. Milk is also the best food source of calcium. Without milk or its products in the diet it takes an expert to figure out an adequate diet, to cover the child's needs for protein and calcium.

"When I say milk products I mean cheese, evaporated milk, dry skimmed milk (for economy) and ice cream," Dr. Survis explains. "When a child refuses milk, it is wiser to give him other milk products, than to try to force milk on him. Remember that a little over a half pound of American cheese is worth a quart of milk solids. It can be put in the cooking in a multitude of tempting dishes.

"The same is true of dried skim milk and evaporated milk. Milk desserts, of which ice cream is one, are always accepted, and provide the same valuable nutrients as the quantity of milk from which they are made. If they won't drink milk, let them eat it."

Plan Menus For High Nutrition

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

KEEP the food budget down and the family nutrition high. Plan menus days ahead of time, using as many of the plentiful foods as possible. They are cheaper.

Here are a few good budget meals.

Veal birds, buttered noodles, Harvard beets, chiorcy and anise salad, enriched rolls, butter or fortified margarine, fresh fruit, coffee, milk.

Creamed corn omelet, canned peas, enriched, crisp rolls or bread, butter or fortified margarine, cottage cheese and grapefruit salad, canned peaches, chocolate brownies, coffee, milk.

Spaghetti and tongue casserole, bowl of mixed vegetables and greens salad, French dressing, rye bread, butter or fortified margarine, rhubarb and apple pie, coffee, milk.

Baked pork chops, baked sweet potatoes, broiled tomatoes, mixed green salad, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, Ribier grapes, cookies, coffee, milk.

Saute of beef liver and onions, parsley potatoes, mashed yellow turnips, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, cabbage and lettuce slaw, whipped gelatine garnished with fresh strawberries, coffee, milk.

Kale, an inexpensive green vegetable, belongs more often in nutritious budget menus. Try kale panned. Use the leafy parts stripped from the tough midribs. Cook in a covered skillet with bacon fat, chopped onion and a little water.

For hot cooked kale use only the leafy parts, cut or torn in inch-size pieces. Use enough water to come half way to the top of the kale. (Kale needs more water in cooking than more tender greens.) Boil about 9 minutes, turning over once. Long cooking causes strong flavor and loss of nutritive value. Add bits of bacon or salt pork, ham bone, chopped onion, or meat drippings in cooking.

ANYONE who happens to be out Hollywood way and meets actress Peggy Dow is certain to see a "Flying Saucer"—hat, that is. Admitting, like hundreds of others, that she doesn't know what one looks like, the chap she's wearing is her interpretation.

Kale omelet is a surprisingly good spring dish. To serve 6 the ingredients are: 2 tablespoons fat (bacon or tallow); 6 eggs, lightly beaten; about 1/2 teaspoon salt, 6 tablespoons milk, 6 tablespoons cooking water from kale; 1/2 cup cooked kale, cut in half-inch pieces.

To make: Melt fat in a heavy skillet. Combine the other ingredients. Pour into skillet. Cook over low heat. As mixture cooks on bottom loosen edges with spatula and tip skillet so uncooked part runs underneath. Raise heat to brown bottom just before serving.

Sweet Potatoes For Baby

ADULT arbiters of what's good for baby have placed sweet potatoes high on the recommended list. He has been enjoying them mashed and strained and lately, he has been getting the feel of a good yam by having them served to him in smooth, palatable pieces.

All mothers are anxious to have their cherubs fancy two or more of the "yellow" vegetables so necessary to a well-rounded diet. The color itself is significant. In the case of the yam-type sweet potato, it is the carotene dye (deep orange-yellow) which denotes such a wealth of the protective vitamin A. One small can of strained sweet potato will give baby twice the recommended daily allowance of the Vitamin. It gives him other essentials, too, besides providing almost half his needed daily allowance of essential iron, and about two-fifths of the daily suggested allotment of Vitamin C.

While this fine nutrition story doubtless will leave your babe quite cold, the fine, sweet flavor of the yam and appealing color (yellow is supposed to be one of baby's favorite food colors) will hardly be lost upon him. Use only the fiber-free center and this may be softened, if desired, with a little milk from the baby's bottle or a very little corn syrup. Here are other suggestions:

Top O' Stove Custard

1 can strained sweet potatoes
1 egg, beaten
1 t sugar
2 t milk
Nutmeg

Beat egg well with fork, add sweet potatoes and remaining ingredients. Pour in buttered custard cups in pan partly filled with hot water. Set pan over low flame to avoid vigorous boiling and cover well. Cook about 8 minutes or until well set. Unmold. Serve with apple sauce or strained apricot for variety. Yield: 2 custards.

Taste treat: Substitute 2 teaspoons orange juice for the milk and omit nutmeg.

Baked Yam Funny-Faces

1/2 baked sweet potato.
1/2 t butter or margarine
2 t honey
1/2 t lemon juice
Salt, raisins

Cut baked yam in half (wrap and store other half) and shear two inches from the stem-end. Scoop the pulp just from the center portion. Mash with a fork, adding all ingredients, except raisins for an amusing touch.

Variation: Mash pulp with 1/2 teaspoon butter, 2 teaspoons brown sugar, 2 teaspoons milk, dash of cinnamon and salt. Make raisin faces, if desired.

Candied Yamballs (Junior)

1/2 baked yam sweet potato
1 t butter or margarine
2 orange sections
3 t light brown sugar

Scoop out rounded portions from fiber-free center of yam and arrange in buttered custard cups with sugar and butter. Sprinkle with a little salt. Top with orange sections. Bake about 20 minutes in a 350 degree oven.

May Plentifuls

MAY markets will be abundant. Among the popular foods in plentiful supply will be eggs, pork and pork products; also manufactured dairy foods, peanut butter.

There will be many abundant vegetables, too, including cabbage, onions, carrots and tomatoes.

toes. Canned peaches, dry beans and peas, as well as prunes and raisins, are also on the list of May plentifuls.

So are light and heavy chickens and fresh and frozen fish.

That's the good news from the production and market branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This list should be used by housewives as a guide to thrifty purchases.

Here's the complete list of May plentifuls:

Vegetables: Cabbage, carrots, lettuce, onions, potatoes (late crop), tomatoes, canned corn, canned lima beans, dry beans, lentils.

Fruits: Canned peaches, dried prunes, raisins.

Poultry Foods: Eggs, broilers, fryers, hens.

Other Foods: Cooking fat, honey, peanut butter, fish (fresh and frozen), manufactured dairy products, pork and pork products.

Duck, Fresh Or Frozen - Good

The new duck season is on and will last through November. More than 5,000,000 white Pekin ducks will be raised this year on Long Island alone. Many other states raise them, too. So whether you get them fresh or quick frozen, life can be "duck soup" for everybody.

Mabel Stegner is known as the Einstein of duck cookery.

Don't prick the skin of a roast duckling. It won't let out any more of the fat but may allow some of the meat juices to escape. Don't cover. Don't add water. Don't baste. That's what she says. She's the home economics consultant for the Long Island Duck Growers' Cooperative Association.

Miss Stegner had us to a duck dinner last week. First came a chilled watercress cocktail. It was made in an electric blender with lemon and pineapple juice and cracked ice added to the watercress.

Next, two Long Island ducklings arrived—one roasted with mushroom rice stuffing, the other a saute of jointed duckling with apricots.

The duckling for the saute had been skinned. Easy as peeling an orange, she said. Cut through skin along center of breast from neck to vent with a sharp pointed knife. Grasp skin with one hand, run knife underneath close to flesh, at the same time peeling back layer of skin and fat. Then pull off skin.

She had sprinkled the pieces with minced garlic and kitchen bouquet and salt and browned them lightly in butter. They simmered for 45 minutes in apricot nectar and frozen orange juice. A few dried apricots, plumped up, had been added and cornstarch stirred in to thicken.

To stuff the roast duckling she used packaged pre-cooked rice and flecked it with chopped mushrooms, celery leaves and onions.

Her life has been one duck after another. Born in Minnesota, the wild duck country, she went to college in Wisconsin. Her roommates received a cooked Teal duck from home every week with her laundry. "We used to lock the door and eat it all ourselves."

But conscience turned her into a missionary to the public appetite. "There's more to a duckling than roasting. Steam it or boil it and combine with vegetables the way the Orientals do. Braise it with fruit juice or in wine. But if you roast it, please use a low temperature and cook only for an hour-and-a-half or two hours."

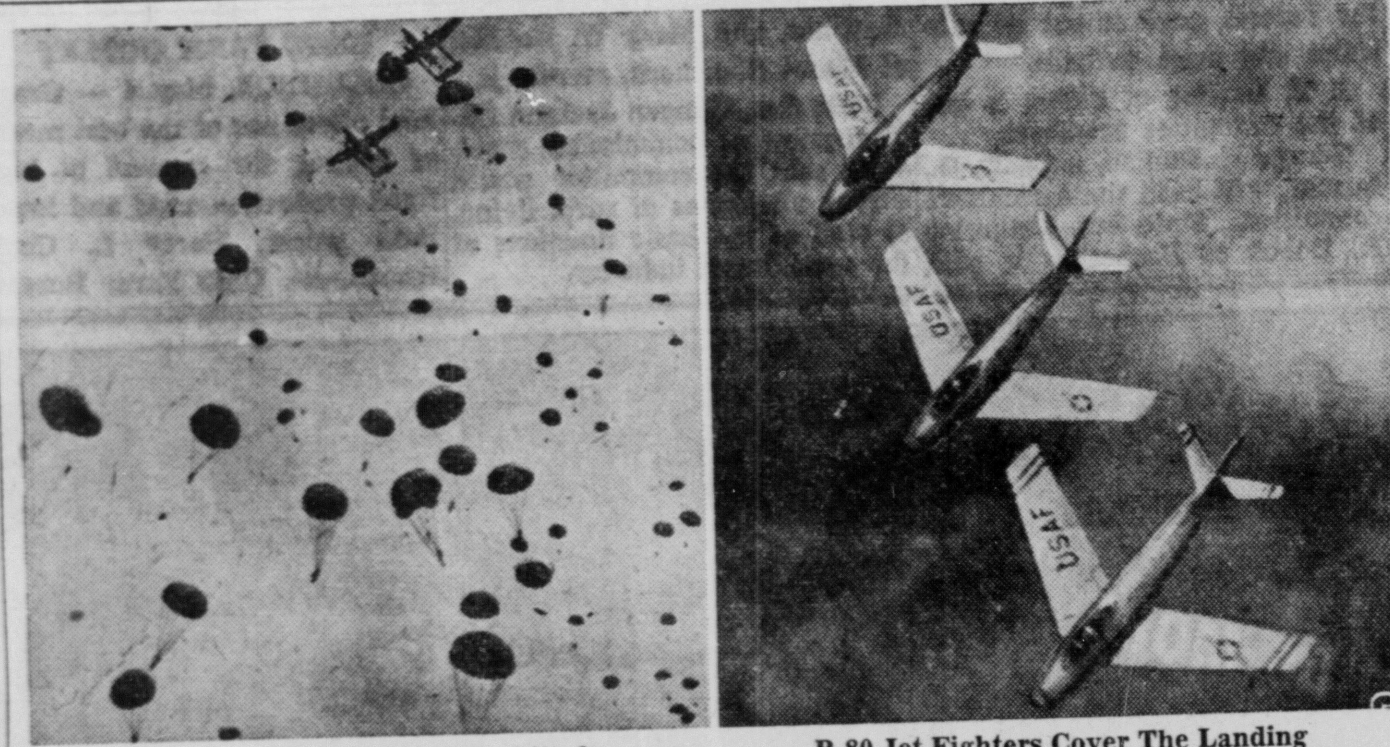

So we roasted two ducklings ourselves last night. No stuffing. Just a few celery stalks and two small onions.

While waiting for dinner, everyone talked about their own duck recipes. Suddenly we thought of the time. Our ducklings had been in the oven over three hours. They were brown and crackly, pungent and superbly overdone. Yet everyone said it was the best they ever ate.

Even Miss Stegner would have liked it.

Onions have many uses besides that of seasoning food. They're delicious stuffed and baked, boiled and creamed, or dipped in milk and seasoned flour and fried. Serve them often because they offer excellent nutritional values to a family's diet.

It's best to chill oranges and then squeeze them for juice, rather than to keep oranges at room temperature and then chill the juice. The reason for this is that the longer orange juice stands the more flavor and vitamin C it loses.

Corn, Vegetable King

FARMERS harvested a wealth of yellow and white sweet corn during the past season and canners processed it to the tune of some 33 million cases . . . 24 cans to the case. This total puts canned corn just about at the head of our canned vegetable packs. It also means an economical price tag for each can of quality cream style or whole kernel corn at food stores.

Three Vaccines Available
To Poultrymen For Newcastle

There's no reason to risk a chance of newcastle disease outbreaks in Ohio poultry flocks this year.

D. D. Moyer, extension poultry specialist at Ohio State University, says vaccination for newcastle, when properly done, has produced good results, and adds, "We need not hold back on it."

Three types of newcastle vaccine are available this year—live virus (old type), live virus (new type) and dead virus. Moyer's comments on the use of each type are as follows:

Live virus (old type) — Do not use until chicks are nearly 4 weeks old. It produces a long-lasting immunity, and birds need to be vaccinated only once. This is the vaccine most widely used for pullets to be kept as layers.

Live virus (new type) — This may be used on day-old chicks, if desired, and is particularly suitable for broilers that are to be kept on the farm 3 to 3½ months. If pullets are vaccinated with this new type, they must be re-vaccinated before going into the laying house with either the new or old type virus.

Dead virus—This can be used on chicks or mature stock at any time, and there is no danger of spreading the disease through its use. Recent data indicates the immunity period ranges from one to four months. It is being used mostly on broiler flocks.

Arboretum Dedication
Set For Forestry Day

Dedication of the Secret Arboretum will be featured at Forestry Day at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, Wooster, May 10, according to Director L. L. Rummell.

The nationally known arboretum, the largest of any experiment station, will be named for Ohio's first state forester and former director, Dr. Edmund Seecrest.

Dr. Howard F. Lowry, president of the College of Wooster, and Horatio Ford, president of the Ohio Forestry Association will be the principal speakers of the day.

Salem Farmer's Cow
Completes Testing

From 64,124 pounds of milk, 2815 pounds of butterfat have been produced in four yearly milking periods by a registered Holstein cow owned by Donald Phillips of R. D., Salem.

The latest production test of Golden Rag Apple Pearl, as she is officially known, is 601.8 pounds of butterfat from 14,582 pounds of milk testing 4.1 per cent on three milkings daily. Starting at the age of 6 years 9 months she completed this record in 305 days.

Color Film Released
By Angus Association

A new sound motion picture in full color entitled, "Modern Beef Cattle," has been released by the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association.

This educational film, the second produced by the association during the past two years, is devoted to a study of modern beef type animals. It is designed to assist the student and beginning breeder in his judging and selection of Aberdeen-Angus.

It may be booked by groups interested in the production of better beef cattle. Association Secretary Frank Richards asks that all letters or postal cards be directed to Information Service, American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association, 9 Dexter Park Avenue, Chicago 9, Ill., giving alternate dates that the film can be used.

Eight Vets Complete
County Farm Course

Eight county veterans, enrolled in a four-year "On the Farm Training" course at Lisbon High School under the G. I. Bill, graduated Monday. Members of the first veterans graduating class in Ohio, are: Martin Adams of R. D. 4, Salineville, Robert Andrews of R. D. 3, Lisbon, Donald Andrews of R. D. 3, Lisbon, Cecil Bennett of R. D. 1, Hanoverton, Orvan Carter of R. D. 4, Salineville, Vernon Farmer of R. D. 4, Lisbon, William McDevitt of R. D. 5, Lisbon, and Donald Humphrey, R. D. 1, Kensington.

Four hundred forty eight veterans have made application for "On the Farm Training" in Columbiana County. Of this number approximately 260 have been enrolled in the training program.

Columbiana County veterans are enrolled in three classes at Lisbon, two at New Waterford, two at Damascus, one each at Fairfield, Minerva, and Augusta. A training program for World War II veterans who plan to become farmers was started four years ago, May 1, 1946, as "Institutional on Farm Training".

The first class, of which the eight are members, to be approved in Ohio was started at Lisbon High School May 1, 1946, with L. O. Stafford of Minerva as the instructor. Ralph Yeager was secured as instructor upon resignation of Mr. Stafford in 1947.

The complete training course covers a period of four years. A veteran is entitled to one year plus his time in service or a maximum of four years of training if he is farming for himself. A maximum of two years of training is offered to veterans working on the farm for wages.

Without proper storage space in the kitchen, busy homemakers waste many steps each day.

Salem Man Member
Of Farm Study Group

COLUMBUS, May 4—(AP)—The Ohio Program Commission has named a committee to study agriculture, including the role of the federal government in subsidies and price controls.

J. T. Darling of Salem is one of the committee members. George H. Dunlap, a Cadiz, O., farmer, will head the agriculture committee. State Sen. Catherine R. Dobbs of Barberton is vice chairman and Mark W. Bennett of Mount Blanchard, secretary.

State Sen. Clingan Jackson (D-Youngstown), commission chairman, said the committee would survey all phases of rural living, as well as the basic functions of the agricultural industry.

LISTS FARM OUTLET

COLUMBUS, May 4 — Grassland offers one of the best means of beating the squeeze of high fixed production costs and lower farm prices, Harry L. Cook, agronomist, Ohio Farm Bureau, tells farmers.

According to Cook, pasture is our cheapest feed, while feed is the largest single item in the cost of producing livestock or dairy products.

Cutting Imports Unfair - Brannan

Says Imports Mustn't
Hinder Price Supports

WASHINGTON, May 4—(INS)—Agriculture Secretary Brannan says it would be unfair to foreign nations if the United States completely choked off imports of farm commodities that are in surplus in this country.

On the other hand, Mr. Brannan says it would be unfair to the U. S. if imports were permitted to take advantage of market support operations in this country.

Mr. Brannan favors a middle-of-the-road course, he says. And this compromise is embodied in an international trade organization. A charter for such an agency, where all the boys would get together and thrash out some trade rules, now awaits congressional ratification.

Issues Warning

If the U. S. throttled importing farm products that are surplus in this country, besides being unfair, he says, it just might touch off hot "economic warfare."

The problem can best be solved through an organization like the ITO, says he.

Mr. Brannan maintains, too, that such an agency could go a long way toward assuring U. S. farmers continued good foreign markets.

In pointing out to Congress the farmers' interest in international trade, the cabinet official says that in the crop year 1948-49, agricultural exports amounted to more than three and a half billion dollars.

Lists Exports

The secretary of Agriculture says the U. S. in that year exported 40 percent of the wheat production, 32 percent each of the cotton and rice crops, 22 percent of the tobacco, almost 30 percent of the raisins, more than 40 percent of the peaches, 30 percent of the peanuts and 25 percent of the hops, just to mention a few.

A sugar industry advisory committee will meet at Washington May 26-27 to consider proposals for an international sugar agreement.

The meeting is in preparation for a conference of the International Sugar Council at London, June 19 when a decision will be made on whether to replace a sugarcane agreement which died during the war.

Members Given

Members of the advisory committee include A. W. Beebe, president, Great Lakes Sugar Co., Detroit, Mich.; John D. Goodie, secretary, Coca Cola Co., Atlanta, Ga.; Frank R. Kemp, president, Great Western Sugar Co., Denver, Colo.; Allan B. Kline, president, American Farm Bureau Federation.

James C. Simons, president,

How To Hold FALSE TEETH More Firmly In Place

Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass you when you eat, laugh or talk? Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No gummy, goopy, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH today at any drug store.

... AND FOUR TO GO—This 1950 model rooster came off the assembly line with some spare parts, namely two extra legs and a double tail. The bird, belonging to Mrs. Harry Aukerman of Eaton, O., is as healthy as any of the flock.

Leetonia Girl Named Area "Potato Queen"

Lexa Sittler, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest E. Sittler of Leetonia, will compete with 25 contestants for a chance to represent the National Vegetable Growers Association meets in Minneapolis Aug. 6.

Miss Sittler was chosen from 12 candidates to represent the Leetonia-Columbiana Potato and Vegetable Growers Association for the title of district potato queen. Personality, poise, appearance and record of accomplishments were the bases upon which she was chosen.

Living with her parents on a 300-acre farm and helping with the 20 acres that are devoted to potatoes, she is a senior at Leetonia High School, ranking among the upper 11 in a class of 44.

Miss Sittler is majoring in band and "American Problems" and serves as secretary to the school superintendent. A member of the Youngstown Junior Symphony Orchestra and the 4-H Club Scouts, she is secretary of the 4-H County Junior Leadership Club.

She is working on 4-H projects in poultry, beef breeding and first aid. A counsellor at Camp Whitewater in 1949, she also was the 4-H Club county health winner.

She belongs to St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Leetonia and is secretary of the Leetonia League and president of her Sunday School class.

Nations Cooperating To Stop Cattle Disease

WASHINGTON, May 4—(INS)—The nations of the world are out to see what they can do in the way of a cooperative campaign against foot and mouth disease of livestock.

The UN Food and Agriculture Organization has called a meeting May 14 to 20 at Paris of its 63 member nations and any others who are interested.

Most countries of Europe Asia and South America are infected with the highly contagious disease of cattle, sheep, goats, swine and other clovenfooted animals. The U. S. A., Canada and Australia have been successful in keeping the disease out.

Damascus Livestock

Hogs, Receipts 369 head; 140-180 lbs., $16.50 to $18.25; 180-240, $18 to $18.25; 240-300, $17 to $18; sows, $12.50 to $15.

Cattle, Receipts 256 head; choice, $29.50 to $31; good, $27.50 to $29.50; medium, $24 to $27.50; common, $20 to $24.

Cattle, Receipts 278 head; steers, medium, $23.50 to $26; common, $21 to $23.50.

Heifers, good, $24 to $26.25; medium, $21.50 to $24; common, $19 to $21.50.

Cows, choice, $19.50 to $21.50; good, $18 to $19.50; medium, $16 to $18; common, $14 to $16.

Set your lawnmower to leave grass 2 1/2 to 3 inches high to help combat crab grass in the lawn.

Four farm buildings will burn every hour in 1950 unless farmers follow safety and fire prevention rules.

Truman Cites Air Pollution Problem

WASHINGTON, May 3—(AP)—President Truman said today that pollution of the air has become a serious problem in the United States.

But the question of control is local, he said: Each community should study its own situation and draft laws adapted to local conditions.

Secretary of the Interior Chapman read the President's comments at the opening of a three-day conference on air pollution, the first sponsored by the federal government.

Mr. Truman said that before anti-pollution laws can be drawn up, standards for the evaluation and control of air contamination must be established.

For the first two days of the conference, some 80 papers are being presented at seven sep-

State treasurer—Frank M.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

A LOCKWEAVE TWIST CARPET

Lockweave is specially woven carpet with each tuft locked in place, allowing the carpet to be cut in any direction without fear of raveling.

This characteristic in Lockweave Carpet makes it possible to join strips with Lockweave Sealer and Lockweave Tape in such a manner as to make practically invisible seams.

All wool permaset yarns mean longer wear and a twist that is guaranteed permanent, even when shampooed.
